MISSION OF LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University, dedicated in the traditions of the Christian Brothers to excellence in teaching and to concern for both ultimate values and for the individual values of its students, is a private Roman Catholic university committed to providing a liberal education of both general and specialized studies.

MISSION OF LA SALLE UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS

La Salle University is a Roman Catholic institution of higher education with traditions of the De La Salle Christian Brothers. In that framework, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation of La Salle University is committed to both the spirit and principles set forth by NCAA, Atlantic 10 Conference, Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and La Salle University regulatory guidelines. La Salle University is dedicated to the fair and equitable treatment of all students and staff.

The Athletic Department, through its intramural and intercollegiate programs, enables and encourages all students to participate in a wide variety of sports at many levels of competition. Values such as leadership, diligence, determination, and teamwork are emphasized. Good sportsmanship from its athletes and fans are supported.

The University strives to operate its athletic programs within the confines of a fiscally sound plan at a level of intercollegiate competition that is consistent with its philosophical objectives.

La Salle University seeks to join other institutions with the like commitments to institutional integrity, academic excellence, and to service to the community.

WHY WE ARE THE EXPLORERS

La Salle University's nickname – the Explorers – was announced by the Collegian in March 1932 as the winning entry to a student contest. However, in the fall of 1931, a Baltimore sportswriter covering the La Salle/St. John's (Md.) football game erroneously alluded to La Salle as being named for the French explorer La Salle, not St. John Baptist de La Salle. Were the two events related? We'll never know for sure.

Philadelphia

The second largest city on the East Coast and the fifth largest in the nation, Philadelphia has retained its neighborhood spirit while supporting a metropolitan population of 5.7 million. The cradle of democracy, Philadelphia is home to the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall, where our country first took shape and our forefathers wrote the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution. Center City boasts hundreds of galleries featuring the latest in painting, sculpture, photography and video art, including the world-renowned Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Barnes Foundation.

Philadelphia also supports the nation's largest and most developed city park system (Fairmount Park) that offers 8,700 acres of trees and trails winding the length of the city. Center City's South Street, Boathouse Row along the Schuylkill River, the Delaware Waterfront and Manayunk, a canal neighborhood with some of the best shops and restaurants in the tri-state area, are also unique to the city.

HEAD OF THE CLASS

As reported by the NCAA, La Salle has a graduation success rate of 90 percent of our student-athletes. This exceeds the average rate of 77 percent for Division I schools.

CARING FOR THE COMMUNITY

The wide variety of service initiatives led by University Ministry and Service earned La Salle University a spot on the President of the United States' Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll.

NATIONALLY RANKED

La Salle is ranked among the top 20 universities and top 10 Catholic universities in its category by U.S. News and World Report's "America's Best Colleges." The category, Universities: Master's North Region, is comprised of 171 schools, more than 40 of which are Catholic. Ratings are based upon a school's academic reputation combined with data on students, strength of faculty, financial resources, alumni support, and graduation rate.

GOING WEST

The University has expanded and renovated West Campus, the former Germantown Hospital property, where classes and labs for the School of Nursing and Health Sciences are conducted. Nursing students are joined by students in Speech-Language-Hearing Science and in Nutrition.

WE WALK THE WALK!

La Salle had 15 NCAA Academic All-Americans, 29 All-Conference All-Academic members, 12 Philadelphia Inquirer Academic All-Area honorees, and 183 A-10 Commissioner's Honor Roll members

THE FUTURE OF SCIENCE

Full-scale renovations are now under way for Holroyd Hall, featuring the Hugh and Nancy Devlin Center for Science and Technology, which will add approximately 38,000 square feet to provide state-of-the-art classrooms, labs, offices and student space.

LEADING BY EXAMPLE

Approximately 85 percent of La Salle's student-athletes are accounted for in contributing over 4,000 hours of community service throughout the course of a year. Project TeamWork – a community service initiative sponsored by the athletic department - was honored for the seventh consecutive year by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports for its community service and youth outreach programs.

CAREERS MATTER

Explore U is a five-stage career exploration model that has been developed for undergraduate students at La Salle. The model is designed to provide all students with the resources needed to explore their values, interests, skills, and goals as related to their choice of majors and career paths.

SCHOLARS TOO

La Salle has graduated 60 students who have been named Fulbright Scholars.

La Salle Women's Basketball will debut its new locker room for the 2008-09 season. The space features a new lounge area with a 42' flat screen television, a Wii gaming console and has doubled in size from its previous location. The new locker room has been made possible through contributions from the University, alumni, and friends of the women's basketball program.

Mission

Central to the mission of La Salle University and the Athletic Department is the opportunity for all student-athletes to experience and participate in a well-rounded educational program. The mission of the Academic Support Services for Student-Athletes office is to provide appropriate academic and personal support for all student-athletes through academic advising, educational programming, and the utilization of campus resources to ensure timely completion of an academic program of studies. Additionally, it is the Academic Support Services mission to provide University and NCAA academic-athletic eligibility information that pertains to student-athletes as they participate in a Division I athletic program.

Core Values

QUALITY ACADEMIC SERVICES AND PERSONAL SUPPORT

It is our role to provide leadership and comprehensive academic programming for all student-athletes.

TIMELY GRADUATION

It is our expectation that La Salle University student-athletes complete their educational requirements for graduation within the same time frame as any other La Salle student on campus.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

It is understood that all staff of the Academic Support Services office hold themselves to the highest standards of honesty, fairness, and professional conduct through compliance with all policies, rules, and regulations of La Salle University and the NCAA.

RESPONSIBILITY

It is our role to provide an environment where student-athletes become involved in their own academic planning and be held accountable for their actions and decisions.

DIVERSITY

We embrace and respect the value of diverse experiences, backgrounds, thoughts and perspectives so that all people are heard.

COMMUNICATION AND TEAMWORK

We understand the need for teamwork and cooperation and recognize the importance of timely and accurate communication with faculty, staff, head coaches, administration, and student-athletes.

Goals and Objectives

The primary goal of the Academic Support Services for Student-Athletes office is to provide appropriate and comprehensive academic and personal support for all student-athletes in the areas of academic advising and counseling.

The Academic Support Services office assumes a supplemental role in the University advising program. More specifically, the Academic Support Services office stresses a balance between academics and athletics, assists with the academic integration of all student-athletes into the University experience, and directs its programming in five areas of student growth: academics, athletics, personal development, service, and career development.

Through programming efforts in these areas, it is our ultimate goal to produce self-reliant men and women who are prepared to face the challenges of a changing society and be leaders in their communities.

Listed below are ten main objectives of the Academic Support Services for Student-Athletes office:

To provide a program and environment in which student-athletes can become efficient students through academic programming.

2

To maximize the academic and athletic potential of student-athletes through academic programming.

3

To provide the means by which student-athletes can accept full responsibility for their educational planning and academic progress through academic planning.

4

To assist student-athletes in identifying academic career goals through academic programming.

5

To assist student-athletes in fostering independence and growth through academic programming.

6

To assist student-athletes in their progress toward graduation through academic programming.

7

To assist student-athletes in balancing and managing the demands of participating in intercollegiate athletics.

8

To inform student-athletes of policies, rules, and regulations established by the University and NCAA through academic programming and the publication of the La Salle Student-Athlete Handbook.

9

To assist new student-athletes in making a successful transition to the college environment.

10

To help student-athletes bridge the gap between student life and professional life through La Salle CHAMPS/Life Skills Program which emphasizes the following five development components: academics, athletics, personal lifestyle, career, and community service.

Academic and Student Services

ACADEMIC ADVISING & MONITORING OF ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Academic counselors work closely with student-athletes from the time they arrive on campus until the time they graduate and leave the University.

Academic counselors work closely with other University advisors to assist student-athletes in the areas of academic planning, goal setting, class schedule building, dropping and adding classes, choosing majors, and understanding degree requirements. They also help the student-athletes understand La Salle and NCAA academic policies that affect academic progress and athletic eligibility.

STUDY HALL PROGRAM

Study Hall is a monitored and structured study environment where student-athletes work individually on their class assignments or with specific tutors. During study hall hours, student-athletes are not permitted to go to the computer lab or library. Each night at study hall, two staff members are present to answer any questions they may have or to assist them with any difficulties they may be encountering. At study hall, students-athletes can also participate in study skills seminars that are conducted during each semester.

INSTRUCTOR COMMUNICATION

The staff in the Academic Support Services office communicates on a regular basis with the university faculty and staff. The purpose of this communication is to monitor the academic performance of our students and to be alert to any academic concerns or difficulties they may be experiencing. The staff also communicates with faculty concerning travel due to athletic competitions and helps the athletes make arrangements to make-up any work that is missed due to athletic competition.

EXPLORER CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING

Throughout the academic year, Academic Support Services will conduct and coordinate a variety of educational programs. These are in the form of seminars, guest speakers, workshops, town hall meetings, specific age group sessions (freshman, seniors, etc.), and department wide programs. Programming ideas are often suggested by student athletes themselves or through the student-athlete leadership group called SAAC (Student-Athlete Advisory Council). Subjects that have been addressed include the following: alcohol education, sexual assault and responsibility, career development, nutrition, study skills, and time management.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Community service is a valuable learning opportunity for the student-athletes that allow them to make a positive difference in the lives of others and improve the communities in which they live. Through a variety of community services opportunities student-athletes can acquire an understanding and appreciation of human differences, learn valuable decision-making skills, and develop a sense of social responsibility. La Salle student-athletes are encouraged to participate in individual service opportunities and/or team service projects through the athletic department's Project Teamwork Community Outreach Program.

TUTORING PROGRAM

The Tutoring Program is a major component of the Academic Support Services office. It is available to all student-athletes, in all sports. Tutoring is arranged through the Academic Support Services.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION MEETINGS

At the beginning of every academic year, all student-athletes attend Student-Athlete Orientation meetings. Usually these meetings are done individually with each sports team. At these meetings student-athletes learn about La Salle University, the Athletic Department, and the Academic Support Services office. Additionally, student-athletes complete the necessary NCAA and La Salle athletic participation information and thoroughly review the Student-Athlete Handbook.

STUDENT-ATHLETE EXIT INTERVIEWS

At the end of every academic year, student-athletes complete evaluations that address all of the key components of the athletic program including the Academic Support Services office. The evaluations are in the form of a survey and are administered by the Associate Athletic Director. These evaluations are kept confidential and are very helpful in gathering feedback about the quality of the services we provide. Additionally, this information is used in program planning to enhance the overall student-athlete experience.

Project TeamWork

The La Salle Athletic Department upholds the University's mission of service through Project TeamWork. Project TeamWork is a youth outreach and community service project sponsored by La Salle University's Division of Intercollegiate Athletics. Project TeamWork utilizes La Salle student-athletes and coaches as mentors and role models to area youth who need academic, social and/or emotional support. Student-athletes must meet program criteria and have an interest in helping children in the local community. Student-athletes also volunteer their time to tutor area youth in cooperation with the La Salle Mentoring Program. Project TeamWork is consistently recognized for excellence by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports. Project TeamWork programs are listed below:

MENTORING / ROLE MODELING: As mentors, La Salle student-athletes serve as peer advisors and as "Big Brothers or Big Sisters" to youth in the local community.

CAMPUS VISITATIONS: Campus visits are arranged to bring youth to the La Salle campus to experience college life.

SPEAKERS BUREAU: Coaches, athletes, professors and administrators speak with area youth about the importance of education, leadership, and the skills necessary to be successful in everyday life.

CLINICS AND WORKSHOPS: Athletic teams sponsor clinics which teach the techniques and principles of their sport.

EXPLORER KIDS: Corporate and individual levels of sponsorship allow children to attend athletic events and be recognized for their accomplishments.

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL / ADOPT-A-CENTER PROGRAM: La Salle teams and student-athletes will adopt area schools and youth centers and coordinate special programs for youth and their families.

EXPLORER INCENTIVE PROGRAM: Project TeamWork youth are provided with incentives for positive behavior (e.g., tickets to La Salle athletic events). Athletes and coaches encourage the setting and achievement of goals.

Head Coach Tom Lochner

La Salle University Women's Basketball welcomed its seventh head coach in the program's history on August 30, 2004, when Tom Lochner was appointed to lead the team starting the 2004-05 season. This season, Lochner will be coaching in his 22nd season at the school overall, his fifth as head coach.

After an injury-plagued season in 2007-08, Lochner will look to return his squad to the success they enjoyed the previous season, when the Explorers posted the most wins in a season (19) in more than a decade. Among some other accomplishments turned out by the 2006-07 squad was:

becoming only the second La Salle squad in team history to start 7-0; winning nine games on the road for the first time since the 1991-92 season (10); matching the best-ever home mark at Tom Gola Arena (10-3); posting the best-ever winning streak at home in a single season (six straight); and registering a .500 mark in Atlantic 10

Conference play (7-7) for the first time in six seasons.

The Explorers were also in the hunt for the Big 5 title, winning their first two games of the year and a date on February 12 at Temple would decide the outcome.

La Salle dropped the game to the Owls, but finished the Big 5 campaign 2-2 (its best record since 1999-2000) and at the end of the season, Lochner was named Big 5 Coach of the Year.

All that success came on the heels of a successful 2006-06 season. La Salle went 7-1 in the month of January, the most wins in one month in more than a decade and started the conference 6-1, which vaulted them to the top of the A-10 standings for the first time in school history

▶ LOCHNER QUICK FACTS

(Jan. 23). However, health and injury problems late hurt the team and they finished the season 11-17, 7-9 in the conference.

However, the 14 conference wins in those back-to-back seasons was the most this decade and matched the output during the 1999-00 and 2000-01 seasons, when the Explorers also won 14.

In his first year as head coach, Lochner guided the Explorers to a 12-16 record (6-10 A-10), which included their first win over George Washington, an NCAA qualifier, in 24 years, and a 9-5 record at home.

The journey for Lochner at La Salle began when he joined the Explorers coaching staff in 1987 serving as a volunteer assistant for two seasons. After gaining full-time coaching status in 1989, he remained as an of Schenectady, NY at his alma mater, Bishop Gibbons High School. He coached the girls basketball team from 1980-87, with his first three seasons guiding the junior varsity squad and the last four as the varsity head coach.

During his varsity tenure, Bishop Gibbons posted an 88-13 record and captured the 1986 New York State Championships (Large Division) with a 26-2 record. His team also won three sectional titles, and Lochner was honored as New York State Section II Coach of the Year twice – in 1985 and 1986.

In addition to coaching at the high school and college levels, Lochner has extensive summer camp experience, teaching basketball fundamentals to young athletes. He is also actively involved in alumni and booster fundraising activities.

Lochner holds two degrees from Temple University, a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education (1989) and an ED.M in Sports Management (1997). He also earned a Master's of Education from La Salle in 2006.

Lochner, wife Beth, son Curtis, and daughter Samantha, reside in Willow Grove.

assistant coach until the 1998-99 season, when he was promoted to associate head coach.

He has been involved in all aspects of the Explorers program during his career at the school, which included serving as recruiting coordinator, and overseeing the skill development of both the guards and the post players. Lochner has been extensively involved in game coaching, scouting, daily practice and pregame preparations throughout his previous 21 years. He also worked with the academic support staff regarding student-athlete progress.

During his 17 years at La Salle University prior to his head coaching stint, Lochner had been part of 296 La Salle victories (296-196 overall). He had also been with the team for two NCAA Tournament appearances, one WNIT Tournament appearance, three conference titles, four Big 5 titles, and five 20-win seasons.

Lochner started his coaching career in his hometown

Associate Head Coach Chrissie Doogan

Head Coach Tom Lochner welcomed back Chrissie (Donahue) Doogan to the La Salle University Women's Basketball coaching staff to start the 2004-05 season and in August 2005, she was promoted to Associate Head Coach. Doogan, a La Salle alumnae (1997), served as an assistant for the Explorers for five years before a two-year stint with Cornell University.

This will be Doogan's 14th season associated with La Salle Basketball, which includes four years as a player and 10 as a coach, and this is her 12th season coaching overall. For Lochner, Doogan is the recruiting coordinator and the primary handler for the skill development of the forwards.

Doogan is one of the top players ever to wear an Explorer jersey, ending her career as the school's second-leading scorer with 1,818 career points and third-leading rebounder with 914. Doogan led the team in scoring and rebounding her sophomore, junior and senior seasons. In 2003, Doogan was named to the La Salle Hall of Athletes.

She was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Player of the Year in 1995 and the Rookie of the Year in 1994. She was a First Team All-Big 5 member in her final three seasons at La Salle, and was named Second Team All-Big 5 as a freshman. Her outstanding career in the Big 5 earned her a spot in the Hall of Fame in 2002. Two years ago, Doogan was named one of the top 25 players in the history of the Big 5.

In her four-year career at La Salle, Doogan never missed a postseason all-conference team. As a freshman and sophomore, she was named to the MCC All-Conference teams in 1994 (third) and 1995 (second). In the fall of 1995, the Explorers joined the Atlantic 10 Conference, and in her final two seasons Doogan was named to the A-10 All-Conference teams in 1996 (second) and 1997 (first).

After leading her team to a pair of 20-win seasons, Doogan stayed with the La Salle program as an assistant coach following her graduation in 1997 and held that position for five seasons. Doogan was responsible for the development of the Explorers' post players, as well as all aspects of scouting and team fundraising.

Assistant Coach

MIMI RILEY

Mimi Riley enters her sixth season on the sidelines at La Salle University as an assistant coach. Riley assists with recruiting and scouting as well as planning practices.

She will spearhead all travel coordinating and community service projects as well as guard skill development. She has also taken on a more active role in the recruiting effort, as she will take the lead on all underclassmen recruiting.

Riley came to La Salle after a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Georgetown. Riley was familiar with the Georgetown program after playing for BIG EAST rival Villanova. Her coaching duties for the Hoyas included scouting, recruiting, individual player instruction, coaching the guards and travel arrangements.

Riley graduated from Villanova in May of 2002 with a degree in communications. She helped lead Villanova to two straight NCAA Tournament appearances (2001 and 2002), while playing for the Wildcats from 1997-2002.

She was the Wildcats' starting point guard both her junior and senior seasons and was a 2002 First Team Philadelphia All-Big 5 selection. Riley ended her final season averaging 12.3 points per game and a team-high 4.6 assists. She was named a 2002 BIG EAST Honorable Mention and was awarded the 2002 BIG EAST Sportsmanship Award.

During her four-year career Riley amassed 862 points, 416 assists and 356 rebounds in 117 games. Her 416 assists placed her sixth all-time in the Wildcat record books.

A Philadelphia-area product, Riley is from Bala Cynwyd and attended Archbishop Carroll High School.

Assistant Coach Stacey Smalls

Stacey Smalls enters her fourth season on the bench for the La Salle University Basketball Program. Her duties at La Salle include developing the guards and assisting with recruiting. This season, she will also be spearheading postgame film breakdown.

Smalls is a 2003 graduate of Temple University where she was a four-year member of the basketball team under former Owl Head Coach Dawn Staley. During her playing career at Temple, Smalls finished her four-year career as the sixth all-time leading scorer and is the only Owl to score more than 1,000 points and lead the team in assists in four straight seasons.

While at Temple, Smalls scored 1,258 points, while dishing out 360 assists and amassing 187 steals. In 2002, she led the Owls to their first Atlantic 10 Championship title and was named the tournament's MVP. Her other postseason accolades include A-10 Most Improved Player in 2001, A-10 Second Team and Defensive Team Member in 2001, 2002, and 2003, and First Team Philadelphia Big 5 in 2002 and 2003.

Outside of her playing for the Owls, Smalls worked basketball camps at both Temple University and at Norristown High School. She also interned at both the Dawn Staley Foundation and Staley 5, where she helped organize basketball clinics and aided in the development of a girls summer league.

Smalls has professional basketball experience, having played for the Birmingham Power of the National Women's Basketball League. During her tenure with the Power, she led the team in minutes played and assists as the starting point guard. Since the beginning of her collegiate career at Temple, Smalls has been very active in the community and worked closely with children at basketball camps and most recently as a case manager for the Philadelphia Youth Services Agency.

Smalls resides in Cheltenham and attended Cheltenham High School.

Director of Women's Basketball Operations

John Donahue

JOHN DONAHUE

In August 2007, the La Salle University Women's Basketball team announced the appointment of John Donahue to the position of Director of Women's Basketball Operations. Donahue enters his second season on the Explorers' sidelines.

Donahue comes to La Salle from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, where he graduated in 2006 with a degree in chemical engineering, and played for two seasons on the RPI Men's Basketball team.

Prior to his appointment, Donahue also coached the Devon Prep JV basketball and baseball teams during the 2006-07 seasons.

His primary role as Director of Women's Basketball Operations will be to oversee administrative duties, including marketing and promotions. He will also be involved in coordinating facility use, game-day operations, compliance, and community service. Donahue will also take over the program's film exchanging.

Donahue is also currently pursuing his Master's in Business Administration at La Salle.

Team Manager Sister Eileen McGowan

Sister Eileen McGowan, a Sister of Mercy, served as a campus minister for five years at La Salle University and is now teaching in the Religion Department. She has been involved with the women's basketball program since she came to La Salle in 2000.

Before coming to La Salle, McGowan worked as a Campus Minister at Catholic University in Washington, DC for seven years (1993-2000). While at Catholic, she continued her education in Theology.

Before her post-graduate work at Catholic, she taught Theology at Chestnut Hill College from 1991-93 and was the Director of Religious Education in North Philadelphia from 1982-1991 for St. Stephen's and St. Henry's Parishes. McGowan also taught at several different parochial grade schools after earning her degree.

A 1976 graduate of Gwynedd Mercy, McGowan earned a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Education and went on to earn two masters degrees. She has an MA in Religious Studies from Villanova University (1987) and an MA in Bilingual Bicultural Education from Marywood College (1985).

Over the years along with being involved with the women's basketball program at La Salle, Sister Eileen was the moderator of the Gamma Sigma service sorority. While a campus minister, she also served on many university committees, including the Health Advisory Committee, the Student Affairs Staff Development Committee, and the Middle States Committee on Integrity.

McGowan's love of the game started with her playing days and her coaching of an elementary school at St. Michael's in Levittown in the 1970's. She was also probably the first and only religious sister to be an official PIAA referee, and she officiated games in the early 1980's in both Pennsylvania and in Florida.

Assistant Athletic Trainer Kerrie Eisenhauer MS, ATC, CSCS

Kerrie Eisenhauer enters her seventh season as Assistant Athletic Trainer at La Salle University. She works primarily with the Explorers student-athletes from men's soccer to women's basketball.

Eisenhauer brings a wealth of experience with her to La Salle. Most recently, she was at Mississippi State University in Starkville, where she received a Master of Science degree in physical education, with a concentration in sport administration.

During her two-year stint with the Bulldogs, Eisenhauer worked as graduate assistant trainer, evaluating MSU's student-athletes and establishing treatment and rehabilitation protocols for the school's women's soccer and softball teams, as well as on the recreational level.

In May 2000, Eisenhauer received her Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology with a concentration in athletic training, from James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA. She worked as a student athletic trainer with the Dukes' women's soccer, women's basketball, cross country, track, cheerleading and 1999 Atlantic 10 Champion football squads.

Eisenhauer received a CSCS (Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist) certificate from the National Strength & Conditioning Association in addition to her PES (Performance Enhancement Specialist) certificate from the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Assistant Director for Athletic Communications Marc Mullen

Marc Mullen enters his fourth season as the Assistant Director of Athletic Communications at La Salle University, after serving two years at the school as the Athletic Communications Assistant. This will be Mullen's fifth season as the primary contact for La Salle Women's Basketball, while his other duties include being the primary contact for women's soccer and baseball. He also serves as the liaison with the Compliance and the Ticket Offices.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant Director in August 2005, Mullen worked as a communications assistant in the office. In that time, he was the primary contact for the men's and women's cross country and track teams, the men's and women's swimming teams, and the softball team. He was also the secondary contact for both the men's basketball and football teams, and was the primary supervisor of the office's student workers.

Before coming to La Salle, Mullen worked for the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club in the Media Relations and Customer Service Offices. The two seasons Mullen spent with the Pirates, included the final season at Three Rivers Stadium and the inaugural season in PNC Park. His duties included all aspects of publicity for the Pirates and managing the press box area.

While in Pittsburgh, Mullen also attended Duquesne University, earning his Masters' Degree in Corporate Communications in 2001. He got his start in the field as a student worker in Bloomsburg University's Sports Information Office, while working towards Bachelor's Degrees in Mass Communications and Political Science.

Mullen resides in Philadelphia with his wife Amber, daughter Caitlyn, and son Jackson.

MARC MULLEN

Assistant for Athletic Communications Anthony Bonagura

Anthony Bonagura enters his first year as Athletic Communications Assistant at La Salle University. Bonagura's duties include acting as the secondary media contact for women's basketball while also serving as the primary contact for volleyball, lacrosse, men's and women's swimming and diving, and men's and women's tennis.

Bonagura graduated from La Salle in the spring of 2008 earning a degree in Communication with a concentration in Public Relations. As an undergraduate at La Salle, he was an active member of The Collegian, WEXP and La Salle 56. As a Senior Staff Writer for The Collegian, Bonagura was the women's basketball beat writer and as a student broadcaster for WEXP, he broadcasted men's and women's basketball games along with other sports at La Salle.

In the winter and spring of 2008, Bonagura served as a Public Relations intern for the Philadelphia 76ers. His duties included writing pregame features and postgame recaps for the official team website while also covering practices and interviewing players and coaches on a daily basis. Bonagura is currently a Media Relations gameday staff member for the Philadelphia Eagles at all home games.

Bonagura resides in Somerdale, New Jersey.

2007-08 REVIEW

WOMENS BASKETBALL: the year in review

After losing the third leading scorer in program history to graduation, Crista Ricketts, the 2007-08 La Salle Women's Basketball team looked to move forward and create some history of their own. In a way they did, as the Explorers opened up the 2007-08 campaign with seven different starting lineups over the first nine games, totaling a larger number than in any of the previous seven seasons.

The Explorers wasted no time in getting acquainted to the season as they immediately kicked off the first game against Big 5 rival Villanova at Tom Gola Arena. Despite starting out strong with senior Carlene Hightower scoring seven of the team's first nine points of the game, the Wildcats embarked on a 26-6 run to round out the first half which eventually carried over into the second half. Hightower managed to record a team-high 20 points and a game-high 13 rebounds in the loss, as she went on to achieve her 10th double-double of her career. Her performance against Villanova ignited four straight 20-point games to start the season, tying her with former teammate Ricketts for the all-time record dating back to 1985.

La Salle notched their first victory in the very next game as sophomore Jamie Walsh knocked down a 17-foot jumper with 15 seconds remaining in regulation to give her team a one-point edge over Loyola (MD) at home, 51-50.

Two games later, in a victory over Albany, Hightower scored her 1,000th career point with a 22-point, 11-rebound outing, giving her three double-doubles on the season.

The Explorers went 1-1 over the next two games, losing to Central Florida at home and defeating Delaware on the road for the first time since 1996, to give La Salle an even 3-3 record entering the month of December.

It was a bumpy road for the Explorers in the beginning of the month, as they went on to drop the first three games, which included a loss on the road to ACC foe Boston College. La Salle was without the services of Hightower against Quinnipiac during this stretch due to a concussion, but freshman Ashley Gale filled in and scored a game and career-high 27 points off the bench. It was the most points by a freshman since Suzi McCaffrey scored 28 against Towson on December 1, 1982. Gale's hot hand provided her with hitting all eight free throws and five three-pointers while also scoring seven points in a two-minute span.

The Explorers climbed back to an even record for the month (3-3) and on the season (6-6) after winning the next three games which included sweeping the competition at the Central Florida Classic.

While in Orlando, FL, Walsh scored a career-high 20 points, on 7-of-12 shooting with four three-pointers, in a win over UNC Greensboro and then upped her career-high the next night with 23 points helping the Explorers get past Appalachian State. In the game, La Salle erased a double figure deficit to register the victory.

Their next game versus Sacred Heart, La Salle again found itself trailing by double digits in the second half and was down five with 33 ticks left. But the Explorers battled and with 14 seconds left, Walsh hit a three to send the game into overtime and they pulled out the victory in the extra session.

Walsh, who totaled 12 games in double figures, hit at least one three-pointer in 25 games and recorded at least four assists in seven games. Following the season, Walsh tied Suzanne Keilty for 10th place on the single-season list with 50 three-pointers made while also moving into seventh place on the single-season list with 145 three-point attempts. Heading into her junior season, Walsh is currently a 37.4 (80-of-214) percent three-point shooter, placing her sixth on the all-time list.

The Explorers started Atlantic 10 action with a 1-2 record, getting their first win at Fordham, as five Explorers reached double figures. La Salle fell in the next five contests but junior Margaret Elderton emerged as the future of the team by scoring a career-high 32 points, 21 coming in the second half, in a three-point loss to Massachusetts at home.

Her 32 was the most points ever scored by an Explorer at Tom Gola Arena and the most by any Explorer since current La Salle Associate Head Coach, Chrissie (Donahue) Doogan, scored 32 against Duquesne on January 6, 1997.

The Explorers snapped their five-game losing streak with three straight victories which included wins at Saint Louis, versus Fordham and at Rhode Island. In that final win, Hightower scored a career-high 32 points along with tying her career-high of 14 rebounds against Rhode Island.

Rounding out her four-year career, Hightower was named to the A-10 First Team and Philadelphia Big 5 First Team. Hightower also received those same honors a year prior, making her the only player in program history to be named to the A-10 First Team twice and the third player in program history (Jenn Cole, 1992; Chrissie Donahue Doogan, 1995) to be awarded as the Big 5 Player of the Year. The Lowe's Senior CLASS Second-Team honoree led the conference with three 30-point games, 12 20-point games and was tied for first in the conference with four A-10 Player of the Week honors.

Hightower is the fourth Explorer to record back-to-back 500-point seasons and now is listed in the top 10 all-time in 10 career categories along with being mentioned in seven single-season categories.

Senior Morgan Robertson, who was fourth on the team in scoring last season, returns as the team's leading rebounder (4.5 rpg). Junior Tara Lapetina, who missed 24 games due to a wrist fracture, junior Antonia Gale, who missed the entire season because of a ruptured Achilles, and sophomore Chelsea Connor, who saw limited action as a result of a herniated disc, have all returned to full health. With a core of young talent in addition to three freshmen, the Explorers look to have a prosperous season in 2008-09.

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 14-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country.

That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 – the University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University, Temple University, and Xavier University.

On June 2, 2008, Bernadette V. McGlade was named the fifth full-time commissioner in Conference history, replacing Linda Bruno, who held the position for 13 years. McGlade's experience in collegiate athletics as a student-athlete, coach and administrator spans more than thirty years.

"Bernadette's deep experience with arguably the class-act athletic conference [Atlantic Coast Conference] in the country makes us incredibly excited to be bringing her on board as commissioner of the Atlantic 10 Conference," said Father Michael Graham, Xavier University president and president of the Atlantic 10 Presidents' Council.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation work. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. The Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better, recognized 1,247 student-athletes in the Fall 2007 while 1,106 were named to the Spring 2008 Honor Roll.

The league sponsors Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and honors one student-athlete per sport as the A-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. In 2007-08, 192 student-athletes earned Academic All-Conference recognition. Moreover, the Atlantic 10 provides four postgraduate scholarship grants to qualified student-athletes.

The Atlantic 10 Conference had 34 teams among the 712 Division I sports teams honored by the NCAA with public recognition awards for their latest multi-year Academic Progress Rate scores. These teams posted multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. Saint Louis and Xavier led the Atlantic 10 in the number of high-performing squads receiving awards with six teams each. In 20 of the 21 sports sponsored by the Atlantic 10, the league's Academic Progress Rates (APR) were at or above the conference average nationally according to the most recent data released by the NCAA.

Men's swimming & diving standout Brad Byars of Saint Louis was among 58 NCAA winter-sport student-athletes to earn an educational grant for the upcoming academic year through the NCAA postgraduate scholarship program. Byars will continue his education at Saint Louis University where he will pursue a Juris Doctorate and Masters of Health Care Administration.

The Atlantic 10 Conference, with a total population of nearly 74 million people within its geographic footprint of eight states and the District of Columbia, will crown champions in 21 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

The Philadelphia Big 5 A Philly Tradition

JEN SNYDER

JENNY MCGOWAN

CRISTA RICKETTS

On November 23, 1954 the administration at the five major Universities in the Philadelphia area agreed to formulate a partnership between their athletic departments. They agreed to participate in a men's basketball round robin, the "City Series," at the Palestra on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. The Big 5 was born. For 50 years, this partnership has remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court. The Philadelphia Big 5 even beat out Rocky Balboa to be named the City's "Best Sports Tradition" in the Philadelphia Daily News!

In a city that is passionate about their sports teams, The Philadelphia Big 5 is the embodiment of collegiate sports...it's the 8,700 fans that repeatedly fill the most storied basketball building in the country, the Palestra... it's about earning bragging rights when your school wins the City Series... it's some of the most personable and successful coaches in the business... it's students showing up an hour before the game waiting to erupt when their team takes the floor... it's the look on a freshman's face when they get thrown into their first City Series game... it's student athletes collecting canned goods for the poor, mentoring our city's youth, and holding clinics for young players...it's reaching countless fans and alums with something good, something wholesome, something historic.

No other city in the United States is represented by

HIGHTOWER REGISTERS DOUBLE-DOUBLE IN SEASON OPENER

Carlene Hightower registered her 10th career double-double - 20 points, 13 boards; however it was Villanova's Stacie Witman who scored a game-high 31 points to help the Wildcats to a 64-58 victory over the Explorers Friday afternoon in Big 5 action.

Looking to win back-to-back games over Villanova for only the second time in school history, La Salle jumped out to an early seven-point lead eight minutes into the game. Hightower scored seven of the Explorers' nine points, and when Jamie Walsh hit a jumper with 11:41 left in the first, La Salle led 13-6.

A 9-0 run over the next two minutes turned the Wildcats' seven-point deficit into a two-point lead thanks to a trio of three-point plays. Maria Getty and Tia Grant hit back-to-back three-point baskets, and then Witman finished the run with an old-fashion three - a lay-up followed by a made free throw. La Salle responded with an 8-3 run of its own to take its last lead of the game at 21-18. Walsh hit a three, followed by a Hightower basket and Alyse Hoover's three with 6:14 left before the break gave the Explorers their last lead.

Villanova (1-0, 1-0 Big 5) then went on a 26-6 run over the next 10 minutes - spanning the intermission. They closed out the first half on a 17-6 run, then tallied nine straight after the break to open a 44-27 advantage at the 16:33 mark and it was still 14 with 9:04 left.

La Salle (0-1, 0-1 Big 5) held Villanova scoreless for the next seven minutes and rattled off 12 points to get to within two. The run included three foul shots by Morgan Robertson, two from Melanie Gibbons, a Walsh three, an Elderton driving lay-up, and with 1:46 left, Gibbons hit a 10-foot baseline jumper to make it 54-52.

Witman iced the game, though, draining back-to-back threes pushing the Villanova lead to eight, and then hit 4-of-4 free throws in the game's final 21 seconds to secure the win.

WALSH JUMPER LIFTS EXPLORERS OVER LOYOLA

Jamie Walsh drained a 17-foot jumper with 15 seconds to play, lifting La Salle to a thrilling 51-50 win over Loyola Wednesday night. Carlene Hightower dropped a game-high 21 points and Tara Lapetina chipped in with 10 for the Explorers.

The win was sealed on the other end of the court when Melanie Gibbons swatted away a last-second shot by Loyola's Vika Sholokhova preserving the first victory of the season for the Blue and Gold, which also avoided their first 0-2 start in program history.

After the Greyhounds raced out to an early 15-8 lead, the Explorers went on a 17-2 run to take a 25-17 with 2:57 to play in the first. An Ashley Alexander three with seven seconds left in the half cut the Loyola deficit to five heading into intermission.

Loyola (2-1) opened up the second half like the first, this time outscoring La Salle 13-4 over the first eight minutes and retaking the lead, 33-29. The Explorers responded with an 11-2 run of their own, grabbing a 40-35 advantage. Lapetina sparked the outburst with eight points in a three-minute span, including knocking down a pair of three pointers.

As was the theme for much of the second half, the lead was short-lived as Sholokhova scored five-straight for the Greyhounds to knot the score at 40 apiece. She scored all of her team-high 16 points after the break.

With the score tied at 47 and under a minute to play, Hightower slashed through the Loyola defense for a hard-earned bucket, giving La Salle a two-point advantage. The Greyhounds once again responded, as Alexander nailed her fourth three-pointer of the evening to put the visitors up one with 26 seconds to play.

La Salle's (1-1) Morgan Robertson grabbed a game-high tying 10 rebounds for the Explorers. With her 21 points, Hightower is now just 34 shy of the 1,000-point club.

EXPLORERS DEFEATED
AT DREXEL

La Salle was held without a field goal for more than 14 minutes as Drexel outscored the Explorers 26-6 to take control then held on for a 57-50 victory. Carlene Hightower scored a game-high 30 points and added a career-high tying 14 rebounds for her 11th career double-double, while Gabriela Marginean led the Dragons with 28 points and 13 rebounds.

La Salle (1-2) opened up an early seven-point lead thanks for Hightower and Morgan Robertson, who combined to score the first 13 Explorer points. Hightower hit a pair of foul shots and a three to give La Salle a 5-0 lead, then Robertson's second bucket of the game with 10:12 left in the first gave the Explorers a 13-6 advantage.

Drexel's Andrea Peterson hit a three, then Jamie Walsh hit her own and with 9:26 left before the half, La Salle was up 16-9. From that point until Walsh hit a jumper with 14:41 left in the game, La Salle managed just six made free throws, while shooting 0-of-15 from the field, 0-of-8 from behind the arc, and committed seven turnovers in the 14:45 span.

The Dragons (1-2) did not make the most of the La Salle scoring drought until the second half, as they closed out the first just 6-of-15 from the floor, but took a 25-22 lead into the locker room. The Dragons hit their first five shots out of the break, including back-to-back fast-break lay-ups to open its largest lead of the game at 35-22.

Despite the cold shooting, La Salle cut the lead to seven thanks to Alyse Hoover and Hightower. Hoover hit two free throws, then knocked down a three. Hightower made two foul shots and a jumper. After Hoover hit a driving 10-footer in the lane with 6:41 left, the score was 42-35. It appeared Hoover cut the deficit to four, but her three-point attempt rolled out of the basket and that is when Marginean took over.

She was the only Dragon to score in a six-minute stretch, but it was half of her total (14), including 5-of-6 from the foul in the game's final two minutes.

LA SALLE USES SECOND HALF RUN TO TOP ALBANY

Carlene Hightower scored a game-high 22 points, including her 1,000th career point, to lead La Salle to a 70-59 win over Albany on Monday night. She added 11 rebounds, for her third double-double of the season, and five assists to her totals.

It took Hightower less than two minutes to join the 1,000 point club, but she did not stop there. The senior All-American candidate scored nine points in the first 7:30, as the Explorers built a 14-point lead early in the contest.

The double-digit lead would not last however, as Albany used a 15-3 run over a six-minute span to pull within one at 25-24. Margaret Elderton scored on a lay-up at the buzzer to give the Explorers a three-point halftime lead.

JAMIE WALSH

Albany (1-3) remained within striking distance through the first five minutes of the second half. When TaNika Throver hit a jumper with 15:48 left, the Great Danes cut their deficit to one point, again, at 38-37. La Salle led the entire way, but Albany had the deficit at one point on six occasions, and had the ball four times with a chance to take the lead.

On this last time, Hightower converted on a three-point play on the other end of the floor to push the La Salle lead to four. She would score seven points in a five-minute span capped by her second three-point basket of the night to increase the lead to nine.

The Great Danes' Gia Sanders drained a three at the 10:22 mark to cut their deficit back to six, but La Salle responded with a 10-0 run over the next six minutes to take control.

Jamie Walsh, who hit four three-pointers, started the run with a three and Alyse Hoover capped it with five straight points to give the Explorers a 62-46 lead.

La Salle (2-2) made nothing but foul shots in the game's final five minutes; however, they sank 11-of-15 free throws down the stretch to secure the victory.

EXPLORERS FALL TO CENTRAL FLORIDA

Freshman Ashley Gale scored a team-high 13 points, but La Salle could not overcome an early deficit in a 68-57 loss to Central Florida in non-conference action on Sunday.

Gale was one of three Explorers to score in double-figures, as Jamie Walsh and Carlene Hightower each had 10. Hightower saw her streak of four consecutive games in which she scored 20 or more points snapped.

Central Florida (3-3) came out hot, shooting 77.8% (7-9) over the first seven minutes, building an early 12-point lead. It grew to as many as 13, before a 9-0 La Salle run cut the UCF advantage to four. Gale drained a pair of three-pointers while Walsh connected on one bringing their score to 24-20 with 4:09 left before the half.

La Salle (2-3) kept the game close for the remainder of the half, as the Knights took a 30-24 lead into the intermission, however shooting woes plagued them all game. They shot just 32.2% (19-59) from the floor in the game, which included missing 11 lay-ups, while Central Florida shot 52.2% for the game, including 61.9% in the second half.

However, they continued to battle, and when Morgan Robertson hit a pair of free throws just inside the 12-minute mark, La Salle was down 44-40. UCF then rattled off six straight to bump the lead back up to 10.

Alyse Hoover nailed a three-pointer to bring La Salle to within five at 54-49 with 7:15 left, but that would be the closest they would get the rest of the game. Central Florida went on a 9-2 run to put the game out of reach, which was helped by a four-minute scoreless streak by the Explorers.

Tia Lewis and Emma Cannon each had double-doubles for the Knights, as Lewis had game-highs of 18 points and 14 boards, while Cannon added 16 and 12.

La Salle 54, Delaware 43

LA SALLE WINS AT DELAWARE FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1996

In her first start in the Blue and Gold, Margaret Elderton scored a game-high 14 points and added seven assists to help La Salle to a 54-43 victory Wednesday night. The win ends a four-game slide to the Blue Hens and is their first at Delaware since Dec. 12, 1996.

Delaware (1-6) jumped out to a 4-0 lead after Corinthia Benison hit the first two Blue Hens' shots of the night, but that would be all the scoring they would do from the 17:46 mark to the 8:10 mark when Jamie Mundy hit a jumper. They missed their next 11 shots and turned the ball over six times in the span.

The Explorers went on a 15-0 run in that nine-minute stretch to take command of the contest. Six different Explorers scored in the run, including two baskets by Alyse Hoover, an Ashley Gale three, and Melanie Gibbons ended it with a 16-foot jumper.

After Mundy's basket, Carlene Hightower finally got on the board with a basket and a free throw, and then knocked down a pair of foul shots to give the Explorers a 20-7 lead.

The Explorers built their largest lead of the game at 15 after Elderton also converted a pair of free throws with 1:53 left. The Blue Hens scored the last four points of the half to go into the locker room down 24-13, then came out of intermission scoring the first four points and cut its deficit to six with 15 minutes left in the game. It was still six after Eva Riddick hit one of her foul shots with 13:44 left.

La Salle (3-3) responded with six straight points to get its lead back to double figures. Every time the Blue Hens would get within striking distance, the Explorers would hit key baskets to stay comfortably ahead.

Tesia Harris converted a pair of free throws with 3:09 left, to make it 48-42, but back-to-back baskets by Gale and Elderton pushed the lead back to 10 with 2:15 left. La Salle would allow just one point the rest of the way to close out the game.

Binghamton 71, La Salle 61 EXPLORERS LOSE AT BINGHAMTON

Carlene Hightower scored a game-high 23 points, but La Salle could not overcome Binghamton's 50.9% shooting from the floor as the Bearcats won 71-61, Saturday.

Despite the Bearcats scoring the game's first five points and holding an 8-3 lead 3:30 in, the Explorers scored six straight and used a 10-2 run to take their largest lead of the game at 13-10 after a Hightower lay-up with 11:50 left. A 5-0 Bearcat run was stopped by Meghan Ahl's basket with 10:19 left in the half and tied the game at 15-15.

ASHLEY GALE

However, Binghamton then rattled off 10 straight over a four-minute span to take control of the game, as Laine Kurpniece scored four of her team-high 20 points in the run.

La Salle would cut the deficit to six as Hightower scored three straight baskets, but Erica Carter hit a jumper just before the half to give the Bearcats a 31-23 halftime lead.

Out of the locker rooms, the Explorers cut the deficit to just three as Morgan Robertson scored four points during an 8-3 run. That included two made foul shots and when she scored on a put-back off the offensive glass, La Salle trailed 34-31 with 17:32 left.

Binghamton (1-5) responded with a 9-0 run of its own, with Kurpniece starting it with five straight points, pushing the Bearcat lead back to 42 and it was still in double figures with 9:30 left in the game as they matched each Explorer basket with one of their own.

La Salle (3-4) made one last push cutting the Bearcat lead to just five with 7:50 left in the game, with Hightower, Danielle Mickiewicz, and Jamie Walsh all hitting baskets. Hightower's converted free throw made the score 53-48.

The Bearcats, though, held La Salle off the score-board for the next five minutes and scored 12 straight points to push their lead back to double figures and kept it there the rest of the way.

SHORTHANDED LA SALLE DROPS DECISION TO QUINNIPIAC

Ashley Gale scored a game-high 27 points – the most by a La Salle freshman since Suzi McCaffrey scored 28 in an 80-79 win over Towson on December 1, 1982, but La Salle dropped a heartbreaker to Quinnipiac on Saturday afternoon, 65-64.

Gale came off the bench to spark an 11-2 run early in the first, giving La Salle a 10-point lead 10 minutes into the game, as she scored seven points over a two-minute span.

The lead was gone when Quinnipiac rattled off 13 consecutive points to take a 21-18 lead. They took a 31-29 lead into the half were up eight with just over 12 minutes to play.

Back-to-back three pointers by Gale and Jamie Walsh cut the deficit to 49-47 at the 10:17 mark and La Salle would stay within striking distance for the next seven minutes. They finally took the lead on Gale's fifth three-pointer of the afternoon with 2:52 left.

Quinnipiac's (6-1) Erin Kerner responded with a three of her own, and then followed with a jumper to give the Bobcats a four-point cushion with 1:43 to play.

Melanie Gibbons cut the lead in half at the 1:19 mark with a pair of free throws. On the other end of the court, Gale grabbed a defensive rebound, but was later called for a charge giving the Bobcats the ball with 44 second left.

La Salle allowed Quinnipiac to run the 30-second clock down and with 17 seconds left in the game, forced Kerner into a missed shot, but she was able to grab her own rebound. She then passed out to Brianna Rooney, who was fouled with eight seconds to play.

Rooney missed the front end of a one-and-one, and Morgan Robertson was fouled controlling the rebound. She made just the second free throw and the deficit was one with the Bobcats inbound. The pass was intercepted by Gibbons and the Explorers called time.

La Salle (3-5) inbounded the ball with four seconds left, but was unable to get off a shot as time ran out on the comeback effort.

EXPLORERS BATTLE BOSTON COLLEGE, BUT FALL

La Salle (3-6) had three players in double figures and held a double-digit lead in the middle of the second half, but Boston College held the Explorers scoreless for more than nine minutes and came back to defeat La Salle, 66-60, Sunday afternoon.

The Explorers jumped out to an early lead, scoring the game's first five points on a Jamie Walsh three and a lay-up by Melanie Gibbons. After Boston College tied the game at 5-all, La Salle responded with a 17-4 run over the next eight minutes, including rattling off 10 straight points started by back-to-back threes by Walsh and Ashley Gale. When Gale scored her eighth point of the half, the Explorers led by 13 points (22-9).

Boston College (8-3) scored 10 of the the game's next 12 points to cut the lead to five points, before the Explorers pushed their lead back to double figures. Carlene Hightower scored on a driving lay-up, then Walsh – who hit three first half threes – converted an old-fashion three to put La Salle up 36-25 with 12 seconds left before the break.

However, BC got a desperation three just before the buzzer to make it an eight-point halftime deficit and cut it to six at 36-30, with the first basket out of the locker rooms.

Thanks to five points from Margaret Elderton in an 11-2 run, the Explorers pushed their lead back to double figures and when Alyse Hoover scored on a 10-foot jumper with 15 minutes left, La Salle had its largest lead of the game at 15 (47-32).

It was a 14-point lead after Elderton hit two more foul shots with 12:19 to play, but the Eagles would then make a run. Mickel Picco hit three threes in a BC 16-0 run and with Ayla Brown's basket at the 3:25 mark, Boston College took its first lead of the game at 55-53.

Walsh would end the scoring drought with a made three and a foul shot at the 3:00 minute mark to put La Salle back up 57-55, but the Eagles scored 11 straight to make it a nine-point game, including a perfect eight-of-eight from the foul line to secure the victory.

WALSH SCORES 20 AS LA SALLE ENDS LOSING STREAK

La Salle ended its three-game losing streak as four Explorers - led by Jamie Walsh's 20 - reached double figures in a 63-47 victory over UNC Greensboro. Walsh scored her career-high 20 points on 7-of-12 shooting from the floor, which including knocking down four three-point baskets.

Carlene Hightower scored 14 points, Margaret Elderton chipped in 10, Morgan Robertson registered her first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds, while Melanie Gibbons also grabbed a season-high 10 boards.

Both teams held a three-point lead early, before the Spartans used a 7-2 run to take its largest lead of the night at 18-12 midway through the first half. The Explorers responded with a 12-0 run over the next six minutes started by a Danielle Mickiewicz lay-up.

La Salle (4-6) got back-to-back baskets by Robertson in the run, which was followed by a Walsh steal and fast-break lay-up. Walsh ended the run with a transition three pointer, pushing the Explorer lead to 24-18 with 5:31 to go before the break.

UNC Greensboro (1-9) responded with back-to-back three pointers – the key to the game in the first half – sandwiched around an Elderton jumper – to get within a basket. However, La Salle scored the last four points before heading into the locker room, to take a 30-24 halftime lead. In first, the Spartans hit 6-of-12 from behind the arc (2-of-16 from inside of it), while La Salle shot just 1-of-8.

It took Walsh just three shots to double that output, knocking down a pair of threes in the first five minutes in the second half, which gave La Salle a 10-point lead. After a Walsh jumper with 12 minutes to go, La Salle held its largest lead to that point at 13 (45-32).

A 7-0 Spartan run capped by Gini Grimsley's third three-pointer of the game cut the Explorer lead to six with 9:07 left. But, La Salle scored six straight points to push its lead back to double figures and the Spartans never got closer than nine the rest of the way.

La Salle 66, Appalachian State 62

WALSH UPS CAREER-HIGH TO 23
IN LA SALLE COME-BACK WIN

Down by as many as 14 points in the second half, La Salle mounted a come-back – scoring 43 points after the break – to register a 66-62 victory over Appalachian State. Jamie Walsh led the Explorers charge with 15 of her now career-high 23 points in the second half.

Appalachian State (2-8) built its lead to 41-27 after Robin Colbert recorded a three-point play on a fast-break lay-up and made free throw with 16:20 left in the game.

La Salle (5-6) would score on its next three possessions and used a 10-2 run to get the deficit to six. Morgan Robertson scored four points in the run, as did Carlene Hightower, and when Walsh drained a 15-foot jumper at the 14:58 mark, La Salle trailed 43-37. The deficit was nine before a 7-0 run by La Salle got them to within a basket. Walsh hit a three, Margaret Elderton and Melanie Gibbons each scored on lay-ups.

With only eight players dressed, La Salle got production from all of them in the comeback effort. After ASU pushed its lead back to six, Alyse Hoover knocked down a pair of free throws to make it 52-48, and Danielle Mickiewicz and Meghan Ahl responded to ASU baskets with buckets of their own to keep La Salle within three.

Ahl's basket was the start of another 7-0 La Salle run, which ended with a Hightower basket and, with 4:25 to play, gave La Salle its first lead since the first half. Mickiewicz would convert 1-of-2 foul shots to give La Salle a two-point lead, but Whitney Randolph knocked down a jumper on the other end to tie the game at 60-all with 2:44 to play.

Twenty-three seconds later, Walsh hit her fifth three-pointer of the game to take a 63-60 lead, but Whitney Tossie pulled the Mountaineers to within one after two foul shots. Elderton converted just one of hers on the other end to make it a two-point advantage.

ASU had the ball with 38 seconds left and held for the last shot. A corner three missed and Walsh connected on two free throws with six ticks left to seal the win.

La Salle 75, Sacred Heart 70 - OT

EXPLORERS PROVE THERE IS ALWAYS
STILL TIME FOR A COME BACK

Carlene Hightower scored six of her game-high 28 points in the extra session to lead the Explorers to a dramatic 75-70 overtime come-from-behind victory over Sacred Heart.

Trailing by as many as 12 points in the second half, La Salle mounted a come back and got to within four points. However, Sacred Heart's Kaitlin Sowinski put the Pioneers up 63-58 with one made foul shot with 33 seconds left.

It looked like the game was over when, on the ensuing inbounds play, La Salle turned the ball over, and all the Pioneers would need to do was inbound the ball and convert their free throws to escape with a win and hand the Explorers their third straight loss at home.

Sowinski took the inbounds pass and was fouled, but after was called for a technical foul for throwing an elbow. Sacred Heart still led by five, but she missed both of her free throws and Melanie Gibbons converted hers to pull La Salle to within 63-60.

La Salle (6-6) got the ball and Jamie Walsh knocked down a three with 14 seconds left to tie the game and the Pioneers would not get a shot off before the buzzer.

In the extra frame, Hightower knocked down four straight foul shots to turn a two-point deficit into a two-point lead, but it was all tied up again at 69-all after Stephanie Ryan scored on a lay-up with 1:55 left for two of her team-high 24 points.

Gibbons hit a 16-foot jumper as the 30-second shot clock was winding down, and after Liz Gruber made one of her free throws on the other end, Hightower scored to put La Salle up three with 57 ticks left. Margaret Elderton sealed the win with a short jumper with 15 seconds left to extend the Explorers winning streak to three games.

Sacred Heart (6-6) was in control for most of the game, as La Salle only led 4-0 early. They led by nine at half, held its largest lead at 12 (48-36) with 12:40 remaining, and was up 10 (62-52) after a Ryan three with 2:50 left in regulation.

UW-Milwaukee 77, La Salle 61

DEFICIT TOO MUCH TO OVERCOME THIS TIME

The deficit was just too much for La Salle to overcome this time, as they fell behind by more than 20 in the first half to the UW-Milwaukee Panthers and eventually fell 77-61.

The Panthers used a pair of double figure scoring runs in first 10 minutes to take control of the game. After La Salle scored the game's first basket - a Carlene Hightower lay-up - UW-Milwaukee scored 13 straight points in a five minute span.

Alyse Hoover broke the string with La Salle's only three of the first half and Jamie Walsh made it 15-7 with a short jumper, but the Panthers scored 10 unanswered over a three-minute stretch to build an 18-point lead. It was as high as 23 points in the first - 37-23 after a pair of Traci Edwards free throws - and they took a 21-point lead into the locker rooms.

UW-Milwaukee (5-6) hit eight-of-nine three-point baskets and shot 15-of-26 overall (57.7%) in the first opposed to the Explorers 39.1% (9-23). The Panthers hit a total of 12 threes in the game, tying their season high and were just two makes off a school record.

Edwards knocked down a pair of foul shots to start the second half to push the Panther lead back to 23, but La Salle (6-7) answered with seven straight points. Walsh started it with a three, Hightower added a basket, and Melanie Gibbons ended the run with a 10-foot baseline jumper to cut their deficit to 16.

The Panthers missed their first five shots out of the break, including two threes, but Edwards stopped La Salle's run with a jumper, then scored two more of her team-high 17 on the next possession to answer another Gibbons basket. They started to hit again from the outside sinking four threes in a six-minute span, to push their lead back above 20.

Hightower led the Explorers with 14 points, while Walsh added 13 points, Hoover 12, and Gibbons had nine and added a team-high five rebounds. The Panthers controlled the glass, 40-19, as Edwards grabbed a game-high 10 boards to add to her totals.

La Salle 70, Lafayette 54

ELDERTON LEADS FOUR EXPLORERS IN DOUBLE FIGURES IN WIN

Margaret Elderton scored a career-high 16 points to lead four Explorers in double figures as La Salle defeated Lafayette College, 70-54, Friday night in non-conference action.

The Explorers - who shot 57.9% for the game - made just two of their first seven shots, a three pointer by Carlene Hightower and a lay-up, which at the 16:27 mark of the first half gave La Salle a 5-4 lead they would never relinquish.

Elderton would add two foul shots - and after LaKeisha Wright made it a one-point game again at 7-6, La Salle would go on a 14-3 run hitting six straight shots to push its lead to 12 and it would not dip below eight the rest of the way. Elderton would score seven of her points in the run and her three with 11:12 left in the first put the Explorers up 21-9.

The lead was 16 (27-11) after Hightower knocked down her third three pointer of the first half and Morgan Robertson recorded a three-point play of her own at the 7:58 mark. The lead would be 16 again after a Meghan Ahl three pointer (4:54 left), a Danielle Mickiewicz lay-up (3:14) and another Elderton jumper just 34 seconds before the break.

Lafayette (7-7) closed out the first with an Emily Garner basket, and then opened the second on a 7-3 spurt. When Vanessa Van De Venter scored two of her team-high 14 with 17:13 left in the game, the Leopards trailed by 10 at 39-29.

La Salle (7-7) answered with a 13-4 run over the next five minutes, with Robertson scoring seven and after a her lay-up at the 12:01 mark, the lead was 19 (52-33).

Alyse Hoover cut a basket with 9:06 left - the last of the night for La Salle - to make it an 18-point lead, but a 7-0 run by Lafayette cut the deficit to 56-45. After Melanie Gibbons converted four foul shots, another 7-0 Leopard run cut their deficit to eight (60-52).

However, starting with those Gibbons' foul shots, La Salle converted 14-of-16 free throws down the stretch to seal the victory as Lafayette would not score in the final 3:29.

HIGHTOWER LEADS EXPLORERS TO 56-37 VICTORY OVER PENN

Carlene Hightower dropped in a game-high 17 points to help the Explorers to a 56-37 Philadelphia Big 5 victory over Penn Monday night at Tom Gola Arena.

Hightower scored the game's first three points on a loop and a foul shot just three seconds in, then scored again in a 9-0 Explorer run which started the contest. The score was 11-2 after Melanie Gibbons scored two of her eight points on the night at the 15:46 mark.

Penn (3-10, 0-4 Big 5) responded with a 7-2 run started by a Carrie Biemer three-point basket to cut the deficit to four. Biemer was the only Quaker in double figures with 11 points. La Salle limited Penn to 30.6% shooting for the night and held an opponent under 40 or the first time since a 68-32 victory at Providence, Dec. 22, 2004.

The Explorer lead was still four at 15-11 before Margaret Elderton knocked down three of her 10 points followed by a Meghan Ahl jumper to push their advantage back to nine.

However, back-to-back baskets by the Quakers brought them back to within five at 20-15 with 6:28 left before the break. From that point until the 2:21 mark, neither team hit a shot from the floor, but La Salle did lose out the half on a 7-1 run as they forced Penn into eight missed shots from the floor and four turnovers in that span.

Hightower scored the last four points of the half to push the Explorer lead to 11 at the break (27-16) a lead that – in the second half – would grow to as many as 21 and would never dip below double figures.

Jamie Walsh scored seven of her nine points in the second half's first five minutes as she pushed the Explorer lead to 18. She opened the half with a jumper, then scored five straight points to make it 39-21 with 5:16 remaining.

La Salle (8-7, 1-1 Big 5), 17th in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (14.6), committed a team-low for the season nine and improved to 7-0 in night games with the victory.

LA SALLE DROPS A-10 OPENER AT RICHMOND

Despite a 20-point effort from Carlene Hightower, La Salle dropped its first Atlantic 10 Conference game of the season to Richmond, 62-48, at the Robins Center Saturday.

The Explorers jumped out to a five-point lead early as they hit seven of their first nine shots in the game's first six minutes. Margaret Elderton scored on a pair of driving lay-ups and then Morgan Robertson's second basket of the half gave La Salle a 12-7 lead 14:30 in, then Melanie Gibbons answered a Johanna McKnight three with her own basket.

However, as the case was last year when Richmond hit 13 three pointers in a 70-48 victory over La Salle, the Spiders outside shot started to fall. They hit five threes in a nine-minute stretch to turn their deficit into a 14-point advantage, as the Explorers went cold from the floor, missing eight straight shots and turning the ball over four times.

A 17-0 run by the Spiders was capped by a Johanna McKnight basket at the 4:51 mark which gave them a 30-16 lead. Elderton ended the Explorer drought with a driving lay-up, but Richmond's Brittani Shells answered with another three-point basket.

In the first, Richmond (8-8, 1-0 A-10) hit six threes, opposed to La Salle's zero and the Explorers did not get to the foul line as Richmond took a 15-point lead into the break.

La Salle (8-8, 0-1 A-10) cut the deficit to nine just three minutes in as Hightower scored the first six points out of the locker rooms. After Richmond scored five straight to build its lead back to 14, Jamie Walsh scored five of her own – which included La Salle's only three of the game to cut it back to nine – which seemed to be the deficit the entire second half.

A Robertson free throw with 11:01 left made it an eight-point game, but Brittani Shells, who scored a game-high 23 points, knocked down a three 24 seconds later, and the Explorers would never get closer than nine the rest of the way.

Dayton 45, La Salle 43

UPSET-MINDED EXPLORERS FALL IN HEARTBREAKER

La Salle had a chance to end one of the nation's longest winning streaks as the Explorers led for most of the game, however with 3.3 seconds left Nikki Oakland sank two free throws to give Dayton a 45-43 victory in Atlantic 10 action Wednesday night.

Ashley Gale, seeing her first action since December 16th at Boston College, nailed her first attempt from the field, a three-point bank shot to give the home team a 9-4 lead.

Meanwhile, the Explorer defense kept the high-powered offense of the Flyers in check. Dayton came into the game averaging 71.5 points per game, tops in the A-10, but was held to just 20 points in the opening period and scored a season-low 45 in the game.

After trailing by two at the break, the Explorers scored the first six points of the second half to take a 24-20 advantage. The lead grew to as big as eight thanks to five straight points from Margaret Elderton and a three-point play by Carlene Hightower with 9:21 left.

La Salle (8-9, 0-2 A-10) then went into an offensive drought, going scoreless over the next 6:08 and missing six consecutive shots. The Flyers would slowly chip away, coming to within two at 38-36. A Jamie Walsh three-pointer would eventually end the drought and put La Salle up 41-36 with 3:12 remaining in the contest.

Dayton (16-2, 2-0 A-10) then reeled off seven-straight to take its first lead since early in the second half, but Elderton tied it at 43-all with a jumper at the 1:15 mark.

Walsh looked to give the Explorers the lead with under a minute left, but her baseline jumper hit off the iron and Dayton grabbed the board and would let the clock wind down.

Karah Cloxton's shot with four seconds left missed, but Oakland grabbed the offensive rebound and was fouled on the put-back. The two free throws gave Dayton the lead and helped them leave with its winning streak intact – at 16 straight.

La Salle 68, Fordham 59

EXPLORERS GET FIRST A-10 WIN OF THE SEASON AT FORDHAM

La Salle had five players score in double figures – led by Carlene Hightower and Morgan Robertson who each had 13 points – as the Explorers registered their first Atlantic 10 Conference win of the season with a 68-59 victory over Fordham at Rose Hill Gym.

It was a back-and-forth game through the game's first 14 minutes, as there were seven lead changes and the score was tied five times. Fordham took its last lead of the game at 13-10 with 9:29 left in the first as Kassie Humphries scored eight of her game-high 21.

Hoover responded with a three pointer to knot the game at 13-all, and Jamie Walsh gave La Salle a two-point lead with a jumper and the Explorers never trailed again.

Takita Earl tied the game at 17-all, but La Salle closed out the frame with a 13-6 run to take control. Hoover started it with a three, then a six-point spurt – capped by a Hightower steal and fast-break lay-up – put La Salle up 26-19. They took a seven-point lead into the break (30-23) – and would not let the advantage dip below that number the rest of the way.

La Salle (9-9, 1-2 A-10) pushed its lead to 11, but could not break away in the second, thanks to Humphries, who tallied the Rams first 10 points out of the locker rooms, and her last basket of the game with 9:19 left cut the La Salle advantage to nine – again – at 51-42.

Gibbons responded with a three-point play to give La Salle its largest lead of the evening at 12, and with 8:16 left, a Hoover basket made it 12 again at 56-44.

Fordham (0-18, 0-3 A-10) then turned to Megan Mahoney who scored five straight – and the Rams next 15 – to cut the La Salle advantage to seven with 6:14. Gibbons and Hoover scored on back-to-back lay-ups to push their lead back to 11.

After a Mahoney three-point play, Hightower scored two straight baskets to get the La Salle lead to 12, but Mahoney responded with a lay-up and a three to make it 64-57 with 1:13 to play, but La Salle would seal the game from there.

George Washington 50, La Salle 32

A SALLE HANGS WITH COLONIALS FOR A HALF BEFORE FALLING

La Salle stayed with nationally-ranked George Washington for the first half, but eventually the #20/17 Colonial pulled away for a 50-32 victory Wednesday night.

The Explorers held a four-point lead late in the first half before GW closed out the frame on an 8-2 run, then opened the second with 12 straight to push their advantage to double figures and improved their record to 13-0 at home versus the Explorers.

Margaret Elderton gave the Explorers a quick 2-0 lead, but the Colonials responded with seven straight to take their largest lead of the first half just three minutes into the game. La Salle would hold them scoreless for the next five minutes, but could only manage to knot the score at 11-11 after an Elderton steal and fast break lay-up.

George Washington (15-4, 3-1 A-10) went up five again before an 11-2 run over the next five minutes by La Salle gave the Explorers an 18-14 lead. Morgan Robertson started it with a three-point play, Elderton then drained three, and Carlene Hightower's first basket of the game – a three – put La Salle up 16-14. Her next basket – a fast break lay-up 30 seconds later – gave the Explorers their largest lead of the game with 5:12 left the half.

Two minutes later, La Salle still held that four-point lead, but the Colonials closed out the half on that 8-2 run and continued it after intermission to take a 14-point lead at 34-20. Jessica Adair scored six in the run to give her team the double-figure cushion.

Alyse Hoover ended the Explorers' drought – that reached almost seven minutes – with a jumper in the third. The were able to cut the deficit to 10, but Antelia Parrish hit a pair of threes in a 10-0 GW run and La Salle would never get closer than 16 the rest of the way.

La Salle (9-10, 1-3 A-10) was held to their lowest output since a 62-35 loss at Virginia Tech on Feb. 7, 1999, but did hold GW to 50 or fewer points at home for only the third time in A-10 play – 47, Feb. 27, 2005, vs. La Salle; 46, Jan. 22, 1994, vs. Saint Joseph's.

Saint Bonaventure 60, La Salle 54

LATE RUN DOOMS EXPLORERS IN LOSS TO ST. BONAVENTURE

Despite a trio of scorers in double-figures and a late rally, La Salle fell to Saint Bonaventure, 60-54. Margaret Elderton led the charge for the Blue and Gold, scoring 14 points, while Carlene Hightower and Jamie Walsh each chipped in with 11 points.

The Bonnies led for the majority of the first half, but back-to-back threes from Ashley Gale and Walsh put the Explorers up 19-17 with just over seven minutes to play. However, the Bonnies then reeled off nine-straight and closed the half on a 12-3 run, going into the locker room with a 29-22 lead.

Saint Bonaventure (14-6, 2-3 A-10) padded its lead early in the second stanza, going ahead by double-digits in the opening minutes. Tiara Johnson's jumper at the 15:50 mark made the score 36-26 in favor of the Bonnies.

That lead quickly evaporated, as jumpers from Gale and Melanie Gibbons brought the Blue and Gold to within six. Consecutive threes from Alyse Hoover and Elderton tied the score at 36-all with 11:30 to play.

Unfortunately for La Salle, the momentum quickly shifted back to the Bonnies. Dana Mitchell's second attempt off of a missed three-pointer was good and ignited a 13-0 run. Gibbons ended a scoreless drought of over five minutes with a jumper in the lane, bringing the Explorers to within 11 at 51-40.

With time working against them, La Salle frantically tried to claw its way back into the game. Elderton slashed through the lane for two points, cutting the lead to seven with just over two minutes to play, but it was too little too late. Saint Bonaventure sank all six of its foul shots down the stretch to ice the win.

For La Salle (9-11, 1-4 A-10), Gibbons finished with six points to go along with a team-high six rebounds. Gale added seven points and three boards off the bench.

Charlotte 74, La Salle 52

LA SALLE DROPS DECISION AT CHARLOTTE

La Salle dropped its fifth Atlantic 10 Conference game of the season as the Charlotte 49ers took a 74-52 decision at Halton Arena Wednesday night.

Two scoreless droughts by the Explorers of four minutes in the first half helped the 49ers jump out to a 21-5 lead just nine minutes into the contest, and they kept La Salle at a distance the rest of the game to register their fifth conference win of the season.

Jamie Walsh hit La Salle's first basket at the 16:18 mark to cut the deficit to just 4-3, but an 11-0 run pushed the Charlotte advantage into double figures. Danielle Mickiewicz broke the run with a lay-up with 12:15 remaining in the first, but another four-minute stretch helped the 49ers build a 16-point lead.

La Salle (9-12, 1-5 A-10) then used a 9-2 run sparked by the three-point shot to cut its deficit to nine. Alyse Hoover knocked down a three pointer, which was sandwiched by a pair of Margaret Elderton threes, the second at the 6:20 mark pulled them to within 23-14.

Charlotte (14-8, 5-1 A-10) quickly increased its lead back to double figures and then closed out the half on an 8-2 run. Morgan Robertson opened the second with a basket for La Salle, but the 49ers responded with 13 straight points to push its lead to a game-high 28 points at 5:24 with 16:26 left in the game.

The rest of the way, the Explorers would stay with the 49ers, and actually cut the deficit down to 20, but Charlotte's rebounding, they held a 53-29 advantage, shooting, 53.8% in the second half, and second-chance points, 27, was too much for La Salle to overcome.

Elderton led the Explorers with 14 points – her 10th game in double figures in the last 12 – as Robertson chipped in 11, and Carlene Hightower grabbed a team-high 11 rebounds to go with nine points.

EXPLORERS FALL SHORT IN BIG 5 TILT

Carlene Hightower scored a game-high 18 points, but La Salle could not overcome a late Temple run, as they fell to the Owls, 60-55, on Saturday at Tom Gola Arena.

Temple (13-10, 6-1 A-10, 4-0 Big 5) threatened to pull away in the first half, taking a nine-point lead with just over four minutes until intermission. Down 26-17, Gibbons nailed a jumper to spark an 11-2 run, bringing La Salle to within one (29-28). A late Temple field goal gave the Owls a three-point advantage heading into the locker rooms.

La Salle (9-13, 1-6 A-10, 1-2 Big 5) grabbed their first lead since the opening minutes of the game as Hightower converted a pair of free throws giving the Explorers a 34-33 lead.

The teams traded baskets over the next several minutes, until a Shaqwedra Wallace jumper ignited a 10-0 Temple run, giving the Owls a 52-42 lead with 5:24 left in the contest. Facing their largest deficit of the game, the Explorers responded by rattling off seven-straight points, making the score 52-49.

Lindsay Kimmel knocked down a three with 2:11 left to extend Temple's lead to six, but Jamie Walsh responded with a three of her own with just over a minute to play, pulling La Salle to within three once again at 55-52.

That would be the closest the Explorers would get the rest of the way, as Temple sank five of its six free throws down the stretch to seal the victory. The Owls became the first team to register four-straight perfect Big 5 seasons and ran its consecutive victory streak in the city series to 18 – last losing to Villanova on December 19, 2003.

Melanie Gibbons added 10 points for the Explorer, while Walsh finished the game with eight points, and Margaret Elderton and Morgan Robertson each finished with seven. Elderton added game-highs in assists with six, and steals with three.

ELDERTON'S CAREER NIGHT NOT ENOUGH IN LOSS TO UMASS

Margaret Elderton scored 21 of her career-high 32 points in the second half, but La Salle could not halt a late rally by Massachusetts, falling 66-63, at Tom Gola Arena.

La Salle got off to a fast start, as Elderton drained a three on the first possession, followed by three consecutive threes by Carlene Hightower, putting them up 12-0.

UMass stormed back, rattling off 10-straight to come out within two. Down by six late in the first half, the Minutewomen went on an 8-0 run, grabbing their first lead after Pam Rosanio converted a three-point play with 1:46 left before intermission.

The Explorers (9-14, 1-7 A-10) regained the lead on a Hightower jumper, and appeared to be heading into the half with a one-point edge. However, Elderton drained a half-court shot just before the buzzer to give the Explorers a 32-28 lead at the break.

Elderton took over in the second half, helping extend the Explorer lead to seven - their largest since the opening minutes - scoring 13 of the team's first 16 points of the period.

UMass responded with an 8-0 run to take back the lead, but Elderton kept La Salle in the game, thanks to her proficiency from the stripe. She sank 10 consecutive free throws down the stretch, helping the Explorers build a five-point advantage.

However, Kate Mills was too strong down low, scoring 15 second-half points. Her jumper with 38 seconds to play gave the Minutewomen the lead for good. Sakera Young sank two free throws with 23 seconds left to ice the game for UMass (11-11, 3-4 A-10).

Carlene Hightower added 22 points for the Explorers, while Jamie Walsh chipped in with seven points and three assists. Danielle Mickiewicz tied a career-high with five rebounds and blocked three shots in nine minutes of play.

Elderton's 32 points were the most ever scored by an Explorer at Tom Gola Arena and is a season-high for an A-10 player in conference action.

EXPLORERS END SLIDE BEHIND HIGHTOWER'S 28 POINTS

Led by Carlene Hightower's game-high 28 points, La Salle ended its five-game losing streak with a 61-42 victory over the Saint Louis Billikens Sunday afternoon, and her total pushed her into the top 10 all-time in scoring at the school, now with 1,317 points.

La Salle opened up the game with a 10-0 run over the first three minutes. Morgan Robertson started it with a lay-up plus a free throw, and after a Hightower basket, did it again to put the Explorers up eight. Hightower capped the run with another basket, then after the Billikens' first two points, hit a three to put La Salle up 13-2 at the 15:36 mark.

Saint Louis (9-15, 4-5 A-10) responded with five straight points to cut its deficit to six, but again La Salle held them scoreless for more than seven minutes as the Explorers pushed their lead to double figures at 20-7.

The Billikens' Lauren Woods then gave her team a spark, scoring six straight, on an old-fashioned three-point play, then on a top of the key three, which pulled them to within seven.

However, a 10-2 run to close the half - including eight straight points - gave the Explorers a 15-point lead (30-15). The 15 points was the lowest output by the Billikens this season in any half and was the third time this season La Salle has held an opponent below 20 in the first half - all three resulting in wins (at Delaware - 13 points; versus Penn - 16).

Out of the break, the Explorer lead stayed above 14 until five minutes in when Saint Louis scored back-to-back baskets - the second by Woods to cut the La Salle lead to 12.

Hightower hit a three on the another end, then Jamie Walsh scored on back-to-back fast breaks to push her team's lead to 19. After a Saint Louis basket, Melanie Gibbons then scored six straight points as the Explorers opened up a 23-point advantage.

La Salle (10-14, 2-7 A-10) held the Billikens to their lowest output of the season and limited their big three to a combined 18 points - they average 41 points entering the contest.

HIGHTOWER DROPS 30 AS LA SALLE DEFEATS FORDHAM

Behind a 30-point effort from Carlene Hightower, La Salle cruised to an 84-67 victory over Fordham. Morgan Robertson tied a career-high with 13 points to go along with seven rebounds, as the Explorers won back-to-back games for the first time in over a month.

Robertson scored the first two baskets of the game and then four straight three-point baskets – three by Hightower, one by Jamie Walsh – pushed the Explorers lead into double figures just four minutes into the game at 16-4. The Explorers held that double-digit advantage, which grew to as much as 32 in the second half, for the entire game.

Fordham (0-25, 0-10 A-10) would cut the deficit to 10 four times in the first half – twice after Takita Earl baskets, who ended with 10 points, eight boards for the Rams. Kristina Bell scored a career-high 17 with five rebounds to lead the Rams, while Megan Mahoney – the A-10's leading scorer in A-10 games only (20.7 ppg) – was limited to just 10 points.

The last time Fordham was within 10 (35-25) with 5:24 left before the break, the Explorers responded with a 13-3 run to close out the half, with Hightower scoring six in the run. Then, with time expiring before the break, Ashley Gale drained a three from the top of the key to send La Salle into the locker room with a 20-point lead.

La Salle led by 19 at 56-37 just three minutes after intermission, but used a 17-4 run over the next seven minutes to put the game out of reach. Hightower scored 11 straight points – her last basket her sixth three of the day – gave the Explorers a 67-37 lead with 13:08 left in the game. After four Ram points, a 6-0 run by La Salle – a Gale basket, two free throws by Meghan Ahl, and a Danielle Mickiewicz lay-up – put them up 73-41.

La Salle (11-14, 3-7 A-10) had a season-high 21 assists on 28 baskets and tied a season-high with nine threes, while also tying a season-low with just nine turnovers. The 84 points scored was the most since an 88-76 win at Rider on December 2, 2006.

La Salle 64, Rhode Island 54

CAREER NIGHT FOR HIGHTOWER IN EXPLORER VICTORY

Carlene Hightower had a career night for La Salle as the Explorers defeated Rhode Island, 64-54, at the Ryan Center Wednesday night, and registered its third straight double figure victory over an A-10 opponent for the first time since 1997. Hightower scored a career-high 32 points, while also tying her career-high with 14 rebounds.

The Explorers jumped out early with the game's first six points, as Morgan Robertson scored four on a 15-foot jump shot and two made free throws. After the Rams battled back to make it a two-point game at 9-7, Margaret Elderton drained a three and Hightower scored on a driving lay-up in a 6-1 run to make it 15-8 with 11:38 left before the half.

Rhode Island (11-15, 4-7 A-10) used a 10-3 run to draw even with the Explorers, as back-to-back three pointers by Megan Shoniker and Amanda McGrew first tied the game at 15-all, then at 18-apiece with 7:17 left before the break.

From that point, until the half, La Salle used a 13-5 run to take its largest lead of the game – to that point – of eight into the locker room. Hightower scored six straight points in the run, and then responded to a Sierra Cooper basket with a three pointer to give her 16 points in the opening stanza to go with eight boards.

La Salle (12-14, 4-7 A-10) scored the first 10 points of the second half and used a 21-7 run to take its largest lead of the game at 52-30 with just under 11 minutes left. Hightower scored 12 in the span, including a pair of threes, while Ashley Gale also hit two threes.

This is the second straight game Hightower has scored at least 30, becoming the first player since Jenn Cole to register 30 or more points in back-to-back games, as Cole did it Feb. 25 and 27, 1993. She also becomes the first Explorer since Cole (1992-93) to have more than two in one season, and her four career 30-plus games is the most since Cole's nine (1989-93). It was her fourth double-double of the season, 13th of her career.

Xavier 57, La Salle 53

EXPLORERS FALL SHORT AGAINST XAVIER

La Salle hung tough for 40 minutes with one of the Atlantic 10's best in Xavier, but eventually fell to the Musketeers, 57-53, Saturday afternoon. Carlene Hightower led the Explorers with 13 points and eight boards in the losing effort.

Amber Harris and Ta'Shia Phillips helped Xavier jump out to an 8-2 lead, but Morgan Robertson drained a shot to bring La Salle to within four at 12-8.

A 5-0 Xavier run gave the Musketeers their largest lead of the game, but the Explorers battled back and tied the game at 21-all with 3:22 left in the first half. After Robertson sank the first of two free throws, Hightower knocked down a 15-footer.

However, Xavier closed the half on a 9-3 run to take a 30-24 lead into the intermission.

La Salle (12-15, 4-8 A-10) opened the second half by scoring the first five points to pull to within one. The two teams battled back and forth before the Explorers regained the lead after a lay-up by Danielle Mickiewicz and a long two from Jamie Walsh.

The Musketeers would score four straight to take the lead back, before Walsh knocked down a three to tie the game at 40-all with 9:32 left in the game.

Xavier (20-7, 10-2 A-10) took a two-point lead on its next possession, but neither team would score for the next three minutes until Tudy Reed hit a short jumper to give the Musketeers a 44-40 lead. Their lead would never be larger than four the rest of the way until the last 30 seconds of the game.

Trailing by four with less than two minutes to go, Margaret Elderton made a beautiful pass to Hightower for a layup, cutting the deficit to two with 1:47 left.

However, Xavier pulled down three of their 14 offensive rebounds in the game, which led to 15 second half points, on its next possession and finally scored with 43 seconds left and the Musketeers sealed the win with five made free throws down the stretch.

Saint Joseph's 70, La Salle 52

EXPLORERS LOSE ON SENIOR NIGHT TO SAINT JOSEPH'S

Playing in her final home game, Carlene Hightower scored a game-high 21 points, but La Salle fell to Saint Joseph's, 70-52, on Wednesday night. Fellow senior Melanie Gibbons finished a rebound shy of her first career double-double, with 10 points and nine boards.

The Explorers struggled to get anything going offensively early in the contest. After Saint Joseph's scored the game's first seven points, a jumper from Alyse Hoover finally got La Salle on the board at the 14:12 mark. However, Saint Joseph's continued to pour it on, taking its largest lead of the half at 14-3 with 10:57 to play.

At that point, the Explorers turned to their senior leader who responded. Hightower's lay-up at the 10:12 gave the offense a spark, propelling La Salle on a 20-5 run. Margaret Elderton's three-pointer at the 3:29 mark gave the Explorers their first lead at 21-19 and then extended their lead to a game-high four (23-19) with 2:43 left in the half.

Saint Joseph's (15-13, 7-6 A-10, 2-2 Big 5) closed the period on a 9-0 run to go into the locker rooms with a 28-23 lead, as they held La Salle to just two shots before the break.

Hightower opened the second half with a three-pointer to pull the Explorers to within two, but the Hawks' Timisha Gomez responded with a three of her own at the other end of the court. A jumper from Hightower would cut the Hawk lead to one at the 16:04 mark, but that would be the closest La Salle would get the rest of the way. An 11-2 Hawk run put Saint Joseph's up by 13 at the 7:44 mark.

La Salle (12-16, 4-9, A-10, 1-3 Big 5) attempted to claw their way back. Jamie Walsh's three-pointer at the 5:50 mark cut the deficit to seven, but the Hawks rattled off eight-straight points to put the game out of reach.

Elderton finished the game with 11 points for the Explorers. Morgan Robertson grabbed six rebounds and dished out a team-high four assists.

Duquesne 62, La Salle 35

LOSS AT DUQUESNE ENDS EXPLORERS SEASON

La Salle registered their lowest output in a first half (17 points) this season and had a scoreless drought of more than 12 minutes (spanning the break), which all resulted in a 62-35 loss to host Duquesne, which ended its season.

The Dukes jumped up early at 8-4 after a Keri Prior three, but the Explorers responded with a Jamie Walsh three, and a driving lay-up by Carlene Hightower gave them a one-point lead 5:19 into the game.

Duquesne (15-14, 6-8 A-10) answered with a 13-2 run over a seven-minute span, which included back-to-back threes by Kelly Britcher and Prior, and they took a 10-point lead (21-11) with 8:40 left before the break.

Ashley Gale stopped a Dukes' 9-0 run with a driving lay-up, and the Explorers would keep Duquesne off the board for four minutes as they cut their deficit to four with 5:10 left before intermission on a Morgan Robertson jumper.

Kristi Little broke the Explorer run with a steal and fast-break lay-up at the 4:19 mark to give the Dukes a 23-17 lead, but that would be all the scoring for either team before they headed into the locker rooms.

The Explorers scoreless drought would continue into the second half, before Margaret Elderton knocked down a three with just over 13 minutes left in the game. By that point, the Dukes had built a double-figure lead, which they increased to 19 (39-20) after a Prior basket.

La Salle (12-17, 4-10 A-10) would score five straight points – a Hightower basket and a three-point play by Melanie Gibbons – to get the deficit down to 14, but a 10-0 run by the Dukes pushed their lead to 24 and La Salle would never get closer than 19 the rest of the way.

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

Now in his second term as President of La Salle University, Brother Michael J. McGinniss, F.S.C., Ph.D., became the University's 28th president on July 1, 1999. In 2008, Br. Michael was elected by the Board of Trustees to a third five-year term, which will begin in 2009.

Under Br. Michael's direction, the University developed a new strategic plan and significantly increased enrollment, giving, and alumni involvement in the life of the University. In addition, the University built and opened a new residence hall for 428 students and adjoining dining facility in 2005 and expanded the Bucks County Center in 2006. In cooperation with the Board of Trustees, Br. Michael launched Shoulder to Shoulder, a fundraising initiative with a $25 million goal for the construction of a new science and technology center and the strengthening of the endowment for student scholarships. Completed in 2007, this major gift initiative raised more than $28 million. At the same time, the University expanded its campus by approximately 30 acres with the purchase of the Germantown Hospital property and two adjoining lots.

In addition, the University opened a Montgomery County Center in 2008. As part of Br. Michael's plan for community revitalization, the Shoppes at La Salle, the shopping center on campus, is under construction.

A native Philadelphian, Br. Michael joined the De La Salle Christian Brothers in 1965 and graduated maxima cum laude from La Salle in 1970 with a degree in English. He obtained his master's degree and Ph.D. in theology from the University of Notre Dame.

From 1970 to 1974, he was a member of the English and Religion departments at South Hills Catholic High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. While a graduate student at the University of Notre Dame, he taught undergraduate courses in the Theology Department and was assistant rector of Grace Hall.

His first teaching experience at La Salle was as a visiting instructor in the Graduate Religion Program in the summer of 1978. He was also an assistant professor at the Washington Theological Union from 1979 to 1984. From 1986 to 1990, he was a visiting instructor at Loyola University's Summer Institute of Pastoral Studies.

In 1984, Br. Michael joined the faculty at La Salle on a full-time basis, eventually reaching the rank of full professor in 1993. Recognized by the De La Salle Christian Brothers for his qualities as a leader, he attended La session internationale des études lasalliennes (a program of study of Lasallian spirituality) in Rome in 1991. He became Chair of La Salle's Religion Department that year, and the following year he received the Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award. Also in 1992, he was appointed Vice President of the La Salle University Corporation. In 1995, he became a member of La Salle's Board of Trustees.

In 1994, he became President of Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tenn. Under his leadership, undergraduate enrollment and retention rates were increased; a Graduate Education Program was established; the Athletic Department joined the NCAA Division II Gulf South Conference; new residence halls were constructed; enhancements were made to science labs and facilities; the school's engineering departments were re-accredited; an upgrade of information technology systems throughout the campus was implemented; and the Center for Global Enterprise was founded. He also played a key role in the school's 125th anniversary celebration.

He has published articles in such journals as Listening: Journal of Religion and Culture and New Theology Review. He has written chapters in religious books and texts, including "The Catholic University as a Context for Pastoral Studies: Reflections on Three Programs" in Pastoral Studies in the University Setting (University of Ottawa Press). He edited six volumes of the Christian Brothers' Spirituality Seminar Series. Since 1983, his reviews of books have appeared in journals such as Horizons, Theological Studies, Journal of Ecumenical Studies, and Holistic Nursing Practice. For many years, he has lectured to a variety of academic and professional groups on issues related to spirituality, pastoral care, and theology.

His academic areas of expertise are pastoral theology, history and theology of ministry, methods and models of theological reflection, ecclesiology, and Lasallian spirituality.

Br. Michael serves on the Boards of the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Pennsylvania, American University of Rome, Manhattan College, the Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition, and the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a member of the Christian Brothers Regional Education Board.

His professional memberships include the Catholic Theological Society of America, the American Academy of Religion, the College Theology Society, the Lasallian Association of College and University Presidents, and the International Association of Lasallian Universities.

DR. THOMAS BRENNAN

DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS & RECREATION

LA SALLE
BASKETBALL

Dr. Thomas Brennan has ushered in a new era in La Salle Athletics since his appointment as the school's fifth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation on September 18, 1997. He guides the school's 22-sport Division I Athletic Program as the university enters its 14th season in the Atlantic 10 Conference.

Since coming to La Salle, Dr. Brennan has enhanced many areas within the Athletic Department. During his tenure, student athlete academic achievement has been outstanding, including a 93% graduation rate for students who have exhausted their athletic eligibility. Annual fund raising through the Explorer Club and Corporate Partners Program has increased significantly. La Salle has also received national recognition for six consecutive years for excellence in its community service and outreach programs. Dr. Brennan is a member of the Board of Directors for the Big Brothers/ Big Sisters Association of Southeastern PA and a member of the Executive Committee for the Philadelphia Sports Congress.

Dr. Brennan is the current chair of the Atlantic 10 Conference Executive Committee and has served as Chair for the Atlantic 10 Conference Post-Graduate Scholarship, Finance and Television Committees, and as advisor to the conference Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

Brennan is a member of the Executive Committee for the National Consortium for Academics and Sport (NCAS) and a member of the NCAA Committee on Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct, along with the newly established NCAA Amateurism Cabinet.

Brennan was the Athletic Director at San Jose State University from 1990-1997, moving the school from the Big West Conference to the Western Athletic Conference. From 1986-1990, he was the Director of Athletics at Loyola College in Maryland, moving the school into the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. He worked at the University of New Mexico from 1980-1986, first as Assistant Athletics Director and then as Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Advancement. His athletic administration career began at Syracuse University, where he was Coordinator of Academic and Student Support Services for the Athletic Department.

A 1973 graduate of Le Moyne College in Syracuse, NY, Brennan went on to earn his Master's and Doctoral degrees in Higher Education Administration from Syracuse University. A native of Brooklyn, NY, Brennan and his wife Ellen – an instructor at Pennsylvania State University, Abington campus – are the parents of Maggie (20), Tim (18), and Kate (14).

JOHN LYONS
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

John Lyons is in his 27th year as a member of the Athletic Department. Lyons served as the head swimming coach for the first 17 years of his time at La Salle and as Associate Athletic Director since 1999. During his coaching tenure, the Explorers earned national recognition and distinction. With Lyons at the helm, the Explorers won 13 conference titles and amassed over 100 dual meet victories.

Lyons was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in February, 1999. He is responsible for the internal operations of the Athletic Department including Budgets, Compliance Services, Personnel and Facilities. He also oversees the Sports Medicine Department and Strength and Conditioning programs. Lyons is an adjunct faculty member of the La Salle biology department, where he teaches one class per semester. He also sits on numerous University committees and was the liaison for the NCAA Certification and Peer Review two years ago.

Throughout his coaching career, he won outstanding coaching awards – including three Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year awards – and was an eight-time recipient of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Coach of the Year award. He was inducted into the La Salle University Hall of Athletes for coaching in 2002.

Lyons was the Chair of the NCAA Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Rules Committee for all three NCAA divisions and is the chair of the Men's and Women's Division I Championship Committee and the Atlantic 10 Swimming and Diving Committee. He has served as Chair of the Atlantic 10 Women's Soccer Committee.

Lyons holds a Master's degree in Education from Bucknell University. He resides in Maple Glen and has three sons – Daniel, Jeffrey and Zachary.

PETER D'ORAZIO
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Peter J. D'Orazio, who is in his 27th year at La Salle University, is the Associate Athletic Director for Athletic Advancement. His responsibilities include coordination of the Corporate Partnership/

Athletic Sponsorship Program, serving as the Executive Director of the La Salle Explorer Club, the Fund Development and Booster Organization of La Salle Athletics and overseeing the office of Athletic Communications. As the Executive Director of the La Salle Explorer Club, he is responsible for all fundraising efforts of the athletic department and works closely with the Explorer Club Board of Directors. In addition, he is responsible for the coordination of all marketing initiatives of the athletic department.

Under his direction in the Athletic Advancement Office, both revenue and membership in the Explorer Club have increased each year through initiatives such as the Spring Fund Drive and the Annual Autumn Auction and Reception. He also works with the Athletic Sponsorship Program which provides an additional source of revenue. He has been instrumental in acquiring grants for Project Teamwork, the Athletic Department's nationally recognized Youth Outreach and Community Service Program.

D'Orazio's professional career at La Salle started in 1982 when he was hired as Assistant Facility Director of Hayman Hall. In 1985, he was appointed the Director of Intramurals and in 1989 was given additional responsibilities as Basketball Ticket Manager. In 1997, he was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Campus Recreation and Promotions, and in the spring of 1998, he assumed the position of Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Advancement.

A graduate of La Salle College in 1981, D'Orazio majored in Criminal Justice. He went on to complete his Master's in Education in the Recreation Program at Temple University.

D'Orazio currently resides in Glenside with his wife, Fran, and their children - Rebecca, 21; Annaliese, 20 (currently a junior at La Salle); and Celeste, 18.

MARY ELLEN WYDAN

ASST. ATHLETIC DIR./SR. WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

Mary Ellen Wydan enters her seventh year as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance and Student Services and is the Senior Woman Administrator at La Salle University.

Wydan came to La Salle University with a plethora of collegiate coaching and administrative experience in her background. She previously worked at Michigan State University as an assistant men's and women's swimming coach from 1995-2000.

Including her tenure at Michigan State, she has 18 years of collegiate swimming coaching experience, including 14 years at the NCAA Division I level. She started her coaching career as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina where she received her Master's degree in Sports Administration.

Since then she has been a head coach at Oakland University and an assistant coach at Purdue, Maryland and Kentucky. While at Oakland, Wydan was also the Coordinator of Women's Sports. She was the Assistant to the Compliance Coordinator at Maryland.

CHRIS KANE

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR BUSINESS

Chris Kane joined the La Salle Athletics family last year as Assistant Director of Athletic Business Affairs. He crossed town from Drexel University where he spent the last seven years serving several capacities for the Dragons' athletic business office.

Kane, a 2000 Widener University graduate (B.S. Sport Management), was named the Athletic Business Manager at Drexel in 2003 where he managed team travel responsibilities and oversaw all day-to-day business operations.

Prior to his promotion to Business Manager he served as the Coordinator of Business and Ticket Operations. He began his career at Drexel while completing his undergraduate degree when he earned a full-time internship in the fall of 1999. Upon completion of the internship he was named Assistant Business Affairs Manager. Chris' responsibilities at La Salle include oversight of Business Affairs, the Ticket Office and Team Services.

He lives in Plymouth Meeting with his wife Valerie, son Christopher and daughter Sarah.

BROTHER JOHN KANE, F.S.C.

DIRECTOR OF ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES

Brother John Kane came to La Salle University in September of 1999 after 19 years working at the high school level. Brother John is a 1980 graduate of La Salle with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. He also earned a Master of Arts degree in Religious Education from La Salle.

He begins his fourth year serving as the Director of Academic Support for Student Athletes. As Director, he is responsible for providing and coordinating appropriate academic support and counseling for all student-athletes. He is also in charge of monitoring the student-athletes academic progress, particularly as it relates to issues of graduation and NCAA academic-athletic eligibility. Before assuming the role in Academic Support Services, Brother John was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in June of 2003.

Prior to coming to La Salle, Brother John spent time at three different high schools. He began his career at Seton-LaSalle High School in Pittsburgh as a teacher and a coach. After two years, he moved to Archbishop Carroll in Radnor, PA, where he continued his teaching and coaching career. He also did a stint as Dean of Students at Carroll.

After Carroll, Brother John moved on to West Philadelphia Catholic High School. In his eight years there he was a teacher and Athletic Director. Kane served a term as Vice Chairman and then Chairman of the Philadelphia Catholic League Board of Directors. During his term as Chairman the Boys Catholic League and the Girls Catholic League successfully merged from two separate leagues into one league.

Brother John was also the League Moderator for Catholic League Basketball during his term as Athletic Director.

A solid Strength and Conditioning program is imperative in the competitive world of college athletics. A critical component to on-court success is the work that is put in outside the lines. La Salle University's Strength and Conditioning Program is designed to maximize the student-athlete's performance. This is accomplished through the use of orthopedically safe, physiologically sound exercises and comprehensive total body training.

By systematically and progressively overloading the muscles trained and holding each athlete accountable for each repetition of each exercise of every workout, the program ensures consistent gains in strength and power. The focus is on teaching the athlete to produce a maximal effort repeatedly for a given period of time and proprioceptive skill, one's ability to control their body in space, not how much weight an athlete can lift for one repetition.

The program maximizes the time spent in and out of the weight room, preparing the athletes for competition by making the workouts specific and purposeful so that they are a means to an end and not an end in and of themselves.

BILL GERZABEK
Director of
Sports Medicine

KERRIE EISENHAUER
Athletic Trainer for Women's Basketball

Behind all great Athletic Programs is a great Athletic Training Staff. At La Salle University, the goal of the Athletic Trainers is to return the athletes to activity not only quickly, but also safely.

The Explorers' Athletic Department has three top-notch full-time Athletic Trainers as well as assistance from the NovaCare Rehabilitation Group. Bill Gerzabek enters his 21st year as the Director of Sports Medicine at La Salle University. The two assistant athletic trainers at La Salle are Kerrie Eisenhauer, who enters her seventh year, and Dan Kontos, who joined the athletic training staff this year. Also integral to the care of the student-athletes are Adam Edwards, who is in his second year as the NovaCare Athletic Trainer, and Corey Brubaker, a first-year part-time trainer.

The Athletic Trainers are on staff to cover all of the Explorers' home games and practices. They also travel with men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's soccer, women's soccer, lacrosse and field hockey.

La Salle's Athletic Trainers work with team physicians, Student Health and the counseling center to help oversee the well-being of all student-athletes.

The University has established a partnership with the Albert Einstein Healthcare Network and provides physicians through the Albert Einstein Sports Medicine program located less than one block from the University. Their physicians are available to La Salle student-athletes on the University campus.

The La Salle University Athletic Department established a partnership with NovaCare Physical Rehabilitation. NovaCare has become the "official provider" of rehabilitation for student-athletes at La Salle. All rehabilitation is performed in-house by La Salle University staff and NovaCare Physical Therapists.

TOM GOLA ARENA HOME OF THE EXPLORERS

Over 50 years ago, in Tom Gola's senior season of 1954-55, the La Salle University men's basketball team played the majority of its home games in Wister Hall, where the campus bookstore currently is located. Since that season, the Explorers have called many sites off-campus home, however all of that changed on February 21, 1998 with a victory over Virginia Tech.

It took $6.3 million and 280 calendar days from groundbreaking on May 17, 1997 to return the men's basketball team to 20th & Olney fulltime. In the last home game of the 97-98 season, the Explorers defeated the Hokies, 74-64, before a sellout crowd, in an arena that went from approximately 1,000 seats to the current capacity of 4,000 – a 400% increase.

Tom Gola Arena is the home of the Explorers and the centerpiece of the Hayman Center. On November 21, 1998, La Salle officially named the arena after the legendary alum of the school in a ceremony at halftime that included most of the great La Salle ballplayers over the years. That night, the La Salle Men's and Women's Basketball teams played a twinbill - the women defeated Delaware State, 84-59, the men beat Howard, 86-63.

The women's team has been playing at Hayman Hall since its inception in 1972. However, during the renovation, the Explorers played at Bucky Harris Gym on the campus of Philadelphia Textile (Philadelphia University). On February 1, 1998, they returned "home" for the first game at the Hayman Center, a 67-55 loss to Virginia Tech, which was preceded by the annual alumnae game.

In the 10-plus seasons that the Women have played at Tom Gola Arena, the Explorers have played 135 games and have a 77-58 record, a winning percentage of 57%. They have had seven winning seasons, which includes a season-best mark of 10-3 in the 2003-04 season, a record matched by the 2006-07 squad, and three seasons in which they went 9-5 (2000-01, 2002-03, and 2004-05).

The Explorers have played many memorable games in the building, but none match the excitement on February 4, 2005, when the women ended a 24-year drought (24 straight losses) by defeating the George Washington Colonials, 65-53.

As far as points scored in Tom Gola Arena, no woman comes close to the 44 points put up by Rasual Butler on February 23, 2002 against Rhode Island, but Jill Marano did hold the women's mark with 30 points versus Richmond on January 23, 2003 for almost four years. On January 9, 2007, Fordham's Lisa Carrol set the mark at 33 points in an 80-65 loss to the Explorers. Just over six weeks later, Carlene Hightower came within a basket of tying Carrol's mark (scoring 31 points in a 71-62 upset win over Charlotte) but did set a La Salle record with the output on Feb. 22, 2007. Last season, however, Margaret Elderton increased the La Salle record by one, with her 32-point performance Feb. 6, 2008 versus Massachusetts.

MEDIA INFORMATION

COVERING THE EXPLORERS

The La Salle University Athletic Communications office thanks you for your interest in covering the women's basketball team. This media guide was prepared specifically to assist the media in covering the team. In order for the athletic communications staff to better service you in your efforts to cover the team, please follow these few simple guidelines. We look forward to working with you throughout the season.

Any questions or special requests for information, photos, or interviews should be directed to Marc Mullen, Assistant Director of Athletic Communications, at (215) 951-1633 or Anthony Bonagura, Athletic Communications Assistant, at (215) 991-2886.

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press credentials for 2008-09 La Salle University home women's basketball games should be made at least two days prior to each game in question. Please direct all credential inquiries to: Marc Mullen, La Salle University Athletic Communications Office, 1900 West Olney Avenue, Box 805, Philadelphia, PA 19141. Official requests may be faxed to (215) 951-1694, but must be on company letterhead or they can be emailed to mmullen@lasalle.edu. Please include your name, affiliation, address, phone, and email address on all requests.

All credentials should be picked up at the press will call table, which is located in the foyer on the first floor of the Hayman Center. Credentials can be mailed if time permits.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo credentials will be issued to accredited photographers, working television media or others on special assignments. They should be requested in the same manner as press credentials. Photographers will be allowed access to the floor-level action, with restriction to the two baselines. Shooting on the sidelines, including from behind or in front of either bench, and behind the scorer's table, is restricted to La Salle affiliated personnel only. Please keep your photo pass visible at all times while on the baselines.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with La Salle women's basketball players or coaches must be arranged through the media relations office, specifically through Marc Mullen. It is suggested that 48 hours notice be given for an interview request. The media relations office will arrange an interview time that is mutually convenient for the player and media representatives. Players are not to be called on their cell phones or in their campus residences, nor should they be contacted via email. Rather, players will return telephone calls to members of the media. Players will not be asked to miss classroom time or practice time for interviews. Feature-type interviews will not be granted on game days.

PRESS PARKING

Parking near Hayman Center – home of Tom Gola Arena – is very limited. Advance notice to the La Salle athletic communications office is required. Additional parking is available in the newly acquired West Campus parking lots located across Wister Street on the property of the Germantown Hospital. To enter Hayman Center, precede west on Olney Avenue for 1/5 mile and turn left on Wister Street. Entrance to the lot is

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The La Salle locker room is closed to all members of the media for all games. Head Coach Tom Lochner and requested players will be available for interviews following a 10-minute cooling-off period, as well as any visiting players and coaches.

Any media wishing to interview players or coaches from either team should notify Marc Mullen or Anthony Bonagura just prior to or at the conclusion of the game. Coaches will be available and every effort will be made to have those players available postgame.

PRESS FACILITIES

Media Suite Policy – The La Salle media suite at Hayman Center was dedicated in honor of John Glaser ('62) in October 2002 and is located on the Mezzanine Level. Theatre-style seating with internet and phone line access is available for 29 people. Food and beverage will be made available to working media approximately two hours prior to tip-off. Also available at this time will be programs, rosters, statistics, media guides, and game notes. The media suite will be closed during each half and no access will be permitted without staff escort after this time. It will again open at halftime and at the end of the game.

Personal items left in the room will be done at the owner's risk. Halftime boxes will be available in the media suite, as well as postgame books.

Press Table – The press row for women's basketball games in Tom Gola

Arena is located on the opposite side of the team benches. Press row is for working media only and absolutely no cheering is allowed. Members of the media, who have given prior notice, will be accommodated with a seat on press row.

RADIO/TV BROADCASTS

Broadcast positions for television and radio are located on press row at courtside and are available for visiting radio as well. Visiting teams should contact the media relations office a week prior to the game they will be broadcasting to ensure all needs can be met.

TELEPHONES

The La Salle athletic communications office provides a bank of telephones along press row and additional phones in the working press room. These can be used before, during and after the game for work purposes. There are a limited number of telephones along press row for use during games, but please ask an athletic communications staff member if there are any more available if you do not see one near your seat.

WEB INFORMATION

La Salle University women's basketball releases, statistics, and game recaps are available to members of the media via the World Wide Web at www.goexplorers.com. Information about La Salle and the other 13 members of the Atlantic 10 Conference is available at www.atlantic10.org.

KALE BEERS

DIRECTOR OF
ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS/
VOICE OF THE EXPLORERS

Kale Beers is in his eighth full year as the Director of Athletic Communications for La Salle University. The voice of Explorer basketball for the past 12 seasons, Beers is the longest tenured play-by-play man in the Big 5 and only the great Dan Baker (Drexel) has called more city series games among current broadcasters.

Beers called his 300th Explorer men's basketball game during the 2007-08 season and has also broadcast over 500 Explorer events including men's and women's basketball and football since 1996.

Beers took over the Athletic Communications office in January of 2002 after serving in various capacities in each of the past 12 years including the Director of Corporate Sales/Broadcasting. In this position, he was responsible for the Department's Corporate Partnership program and coordination of the La Salle Basketball Radio Network, which he helped form in 1996.

Beers has also worked close to a dozen NCAA men's basketball tournament games over the last three seasons including Regional Finals in Austin TX (2005), Washington, DC (2006) and East Rutherford, NJ (2007) as well as opening round games in Philadelphia in 2006 where he assisted in media operations.

Beers, 37, was born in Emmaus, PA, and is a veteran of the U.S. Army, in which he served six years (two in active duty) as a Cavalry Scout.

STEVE DEGLER

COLOR ANALYST/PLAY-BY-PLAY

Steve Degler joined La Salle for the 1997-1998 season of Explorer basketball and now enters his 12th season as the color analyst on the La Salle Basketball Radio Network. Degler has also been the voice of the Reading Phillies for the past 16 seasons.

Along with his work with the Reading Phillies, Degler has also worked for 14 years as radio/TV broadcaster and public address announcer for football and basketball at Kutztown University. Degler has been involved for nine years as radio and TV broadcaster for high school and college soccer, football, and basketball games in Philadelphia, Berks, Lebanon and Schuylkill counties, calling numerous district and state tournament contests, including five state championship games.

He also has called dozens of Reading Phillies games throughout the Mid-Atlantic region on the CN8 television network.

A 1988 graduate of Kutztown University, with a Bachelor of Science in Telecommunications, he and his wife, Karen, and his daughters Sarah and Hannah reside in Hamburg, PA. Degler also handles play-by-play duties for a selected number of LRN broadcasts.

THE LRN UNDERGRADUATE PRODUCTION ASSISTANT

Since its inception 13 years ago, The La Salle Radio Network has cultivated a strong relationship with the Communication Department and developed an informal apprentice-like program with undergraduates seeking a career in sports broadcasting. These students work voluntarily for the Network and obtain valuable production and on-air experience. This season Jeff Landis will join the LRN team as the undergraduate assistant.

Past LRN Undergraduate Assistants:

DJ Deeney
Paul Goldhammer
Tim McCaffrey
Al Lee
Mike Garafolo
Wally Faulkner
Matt Kirsch
Ed Fitzpatrick
Mike D'Agostino

EXPLORERS ON TV

CBS College Sports (CBS-C) has become the official media partner of the Atlantic 10 and owns the rights to all Atlantic 10 contests and member home games. CBS-C will offer college basketball fans a substantial selection of Atlantic 10 and Explorer games. Additionally, selected Explorer games not covered on the CBS-C package will appear on regional media outlets Comcast SportsNet and CN8.

In addition to producing Atlantic 10 telecasts of all member schools, CBS-C is also the official online Web partner for all Atlantic 10 schools and offers live video streaming of all men and women's basketball games as well as other sporting events.

THE LA SALLE BASKETBALL RADIO NETWORK

Martini Lounge Radio (AM 1340) joins the Explorer family as the flagship station for the La Salle Basketball Radio Network (LRN) and will broadcast all Explorer Men's games over their signal based in the Belmont Hills area of Philadelphia. LRN will also broadcast via the web select Explorer Women's games.

Watch the Explorers Worldwide!

La Salle University has partnered with CBS College Sports online to bring live action of Explorer athletics to the Internet!

- ➔ All La Salle men and women's home games will be seen live on GoExplorers.com All-Access (unless game is telecast nationally or regionally on CBS College Sports Network)
- ➔ CBS College Sports' partnership with the Atlantic 10 means all Explorer conference games will be available on video
- ➔ Road games against non-conference opponents who are CBS College Sports affiliates may also be available on video
- ➔ Interviews, press conferences and other video features will also be available on GoExplorers.com All-Access
- ➔ Other Explorers sporting events such as men and women's soccer, volleyball, swimming and lacrosse also available
- ➔ GoExplorers.com All-Access monthly and annual subscriptions available

A UNIVERSITY-WIDE EFFORT:

Explorer athletics online through CBS College Sports Network and GoExplorers.com All-Access is only possible due to a working relationship with the University's excellent Department of Communication. Students interested in careers in television and radio production volunteer to staff games and work in front of the camera to make Explorers sports a worldwide event. Participating in extra-curricular activities such as this and La Salle's on-campus television station, La Salle 56, La Salle communication students are given opportunities to gain real-time live television production experience that are unmatched.
